POST OFFICES IN PENNSYLVANIA.

ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

(Corrected to November 30, 1919.)

Money-order offices are indicated by an asterisk (*); international money-order offices by a dagger (†); summer offices by a double dagger (§); rural stations by parallel lines (||). Named stations are in parentheses.

All stations issue and cash money-orders, register letters and parcels, and sell postal supplies. Lettered and named stations, in addition, receive, deliver and dispatch mail matter.

Money orders must be drawn only on the main office, or branch offices, not on stations, but may be cashed at either the main office, branch office or any station of such office.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the following days and half days; namely, the first day of January, commonly called New Year's day; the twelfth day of February, known as Lincoln's birthday; the twenty-second day of February, known as Washington's birthday; Good Friday; the thirtieth day of May, known as Memorial day; the fourth of July, called Independence day; the first Monday of September, known as Labor Day; the twelfth day of October, known as Columbus day; the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, Election day; the twenty-fifth day of December, known as Christmas day; and every Saturday, after twelve o'clock noon until twelve o'clock midnight, each of which Saturdays is hereby designated a half holiday; and any day appointed or recommended by the Governor of this State or the President of the United States as a day of thanksgiving or fasting and prayer, or other religious observance,—shall, for all purposes whatever as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance, and as regards the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor, of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, and promissory notes, made after the passage of this act, be treated and considered as the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and as public holidays and half holidays; and all such bills, checks, drafts, and notes, otherwise presentable for acceptance or payment on any of the said days, shall be deemed to be payable and be presentable for acceptance or payment on the secular or business day next succeeding such holiday or half holiday; except checks, drafts, bills of exchange, and promissory notes, payable at sight or on demand, which would otherwise be payable on any half holiday Saturday, shall be deemed to be payable at or before twelve o'clock noon of such half holiday: Provided, however, That for the purpose of protesting or otherwise holding liable any party to any bill of exchange, check, draft, or promissory note, and which shall not have been paid before twelve o'clock noon of any Saturday designated a half holiday, as aforesaid, a demand for acceptance or payment thereof shall not be made, and notice of protest or dishonor thereof shall not be given, until the next succeeding secular or business day: And provided further, That when any person, firm, corporation, or company shall, on any Saturday designated a half holiday, receive for collection any check, bill of exchange, draft, or promissory note, such person, firm, corporation, or company shall not be deemed guilty of any neglect or omission of duty, nor incur any liability, in not presenting for payment or acceptance or collection such check, bill of exchange, draft, or promissory note on that day: And provided further, That, in construing this section, every Saturday designated a half holiday shall, until twelve o'clock noon, be deemed a secular or business day; and the days and half days aforesaid, so designated as holidays and half holidays, shall be considered as public holidays and half holidays, for all purposes whatsoever as regards the transaction of business: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent or invalidate the entry, issuance, service or execution of any writ, summons, confession of judgment, or other legal process whatever, on any of the holidays or half holidays herein designated as holidays; nor to prevent any bank from keeping its doors open, or transacting its business, on any of the said Saturday afternoons, if by a vote of its directors it shall elect to do so.

Section 2. Whenever the first day of January, the twelfth day of February, the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the twelfth day of October, or the twenty-fifth day of December shall any of them occur on Sunday the following day (Monday) shall be deemed and declared a public holiday. All bills of exchange, checks, drafts, or promissory notes, falling due on any of the Mondays so observed as holidays, shall be due and payable on the next succeeding secular or business day; and all Mondays so observed as holidays shall, for all purposes whatever as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance, and as regards the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor, of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, and promissory notes, made after the passage of this act, be treated and considered as if the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.

Section 3. All bills of exchange, checks, drafts and promissory notes made after the passage of this act, which by the terms thereof shall be payable on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, shall be deemed to be and shall be payable on the next succeeding secular or business day.

Section 4. That all the days and half days herein designated as legal holidays shall be regarded as secular or business days, for all other purposes than those mentioned in this act.

Section 5. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. (Act of February 16, 1911, P. L. 3.)

Revised figures for June 30 of each year used in above table.

Specie payments were suspended from January 1, 1862, to January 1, 1879, during the greater part of which period gold and silver coins were not in circulation except on the Pacific coast, where, it is estimated, the specie circulation was generally about $25,000,000. In 1876 subsidiary silver again came into use. The coinage of standard silver dollars was resumed in 1878 and again discontinued during the fiscal year 1905. First issue of Federal reserve notes in fiscal year 1915.

For redemption of outstanding certificates an exact equivalent in gold coin or bullion or standard silver dollars is held in the Treasury, and is not included in the account of money held as assets of the Treasury. During the fiscal year 1915 there is included with the Treasury assets the amount of money held by Federal reserve banks and Federal reserve agents against issue of Federal reserve notes.

In 1907 the Director of the Mint reduced his estimate of the stock of gold coin in the United States by $135,000,000, and in 1910 reduced his estimate of the stock of subsidiary silver coin in the United States by $9,000,000.

Zinc,	3,006,210
Other products,	3,841,426
Total,	$1,780,659,875

Note—The values of coal, coke, natural gas and petroleum are not based upon the pit mouth, or at the derrick, but upon prices of first wholesalers. Much of the culm of coal mines, formerly waste, is now utilized, partly by briquetting, and thus sold, and therefore a large asset. "Other products" include alumina, Kieselguhr, puzzolan cement, abrasive quartz, sienna, shale and amber.

The reader will note the marked increase in value, as compared with the year 1917, of the anthracite coal, and the decrease in bituminous coal and coke.

Pennsylvania during the year 1918 produced more than thrice the mineral values of any other state.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF PENNSYLVANIA.

BILLS, ET CETERA, FOR CONCURRENCE.

Rule 1. All bills, resolutions, votes, orders, and amendments of either House, to which concurrence of both is necessary, as well as messages, shall be presented to the other by the clerk of the House from which they are sent.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CLERK OF EITHER HOUSE.

Rule 2. When the clerk of either House shall wait on the other, notice thereof shall be given by the sergeant-at-arms, or doorkeeper, to the Speaker or President, who shall declare the same to the House or Senate, as the case may be.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES.

Rule 3. When either House shall request a conference and appoint a committee for that purpose, and the other House shall also appoint a committee to confer, such conference shall be held at any time and place, to be agreed upon by the chairman; and in all cases where a conference takes place, the committee shall be composed of members who vote in the majority on the point or points of difference; but the committee shall not have power or control over any part of a bill, resolution, or order, except such parts upon which a difference exists between the two Houses.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE.

Rule 4. Whenever a claim against the State, of any description, has been or shall be presented to either House, and referred to a committee, and such committee shall have made a report, in writing, against the allowance of the claim, setting forth the grounds of their decision, and the same shall have been concurred in by such House, it shall not be in order to originate again the consideration of such claim in that House, either by bill, resolution, petition, or otherwise, except upon a memorial of the claimant first setting forth upon affidavit, that he has obtained material evidence in support of his claim, since the decision against it, which was not before the committee at the former decision, and a statement of the substance of such evidence, or, second, assigning specific errors in the report of the committee adverse to it.

NOTICE OF REJECTION OF BILLS, ET CETERA.

Rule 5. When a bill, resolution, or order which shall have passed in one House is rejected in the other, notice thereof shall be given to the House in which the same shall have passed.

GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

Rule 6. That the committee having charge of the general appropriation bill shall be required to report the same to the House on or before the first Monday in March, and when reported in either House, said bill shall have priority over all other business until finally disposed of.

NEW BILLS.

Rule 7. No new bills shall be transmitted from or received by either House within four days of the time fixed on for an adjournment sine die.

BILLS, ET CETERA, ON DAY OF FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Rule 8. No bill, resolution, or order, to which the signature of the Governor may be required, shall be passed by either House on the day of final adjournment; and all such bills, resolutions, and orders, after they have been duly compared and certified by the proper committee shall be presented to the Governor for his signature, before eight o'clock on the morning of the day of the final adjournment.

BILLS, ET CETERA, TO BE PRINTED.

Rule 9. No bill, resolution, or order shall be sent to the Governor for his approval unless the same shall be printed on bond paper in exact reproduction of the bill, resolution or order as finally passed.

DISPENSING WITH JOINT RULES.

Rule 10. No joint rule shall be dispensed with but by a concurrent vote of two-thirds of each House; and if either House shall violate a joint rule, the question of order may be raised in the other House, and decided in the same manner as in a case of the violation of the rules of such House; and if it shall be decided that the joint rules have been violated, the bill involving such violation shall be returned to the House in which it originated, without further action, or, at the option of such House, the Speaker may direct the Clerk to mark the section or sections in conflict with the rules, as non-concurred in or negatived.

AMENDMENTS.

Rule 11. Every bill, resolution, or order, transmitted to either House, if amended by the House to which transmitted, shall have the amendment or amendments printed in italics, or inclosed in brackets, by the House in which the amendment or amendments are made and marked Senate or House amendments, as the case may be. (Adopted January 13, 1874, amended January, 1901.)

DECISIONS ON POINTS OF ORDER RAISED IN JOINT ASSEMBLY—SESSION OF 1881.

1. On the question, "Can votes cast for a person who has not been nominated in either House, and whose name has therefore not been communicated from one House to another, not less than two days prior to the meeting of the joint assembly, as required by the act of Congress and of the General Assembly of this State, be received and counted?" The President decided: That the provisions of the act of 1867, regulating the manner of electing Senators, provides, among other things, that each House shall nominate at least one person—the restriction being at least one person—and that the name of the person or persons nominated, shall be communicated from each House to the other, at least two days before the time of electing. In the opinion of the Chair the purpose of that requirement is that each House may, if possible, take concurrent action, that the Senate may know the name of the persons that the House will probably vote for, and that the House may know the name of the persons for whom the Senate will probably vote, and if possible, as is contemplated by law, that the two Houses may take concurrent action in an election by each House separately. In the event of a failure to do that, the duty then devolves upon a joint assembly of the two Houses. If the same person shall not have received a majority of all the votes cast in each House, or if either House shall have failed to take the steps required by this act, then the joint assembly shall proceed to elect, and in so doing it is not restricted to the names of the persons nominated. In the opinion of the Chair, the failure to make any nomination—the provisions of the first section being directory—would not prevent the joint assembly when assembled from taking any action or electing any person that the majority thereof may agree upon. The second section evidently contemplates a possible failure to perform the duties required by the first section. These two bodies being now in joint assembly, in the absence of any constitutional restriction or any more positive requirement of law fixing the qualification of Senators, the Chair does not feel justified in refusing to receive a vote cast for any gentleman in this Commonwealth who answers the requirements provided for by the constitution, consequently the Chair will direct such votes to be counted, unless the joint assembly take different action.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 179.

2. On the question, "That this joint assembly, not being governed by any rules, except those governing conventions in general, the yeas and nays cannot be called for by any certain number of members, but must be ordered as any other order is made, by a majority vote of the convention?" The President decided: That the Chair is obliged to recognize the concurrent interpretation of parliamentary law, as evidenced by the custom of both Houses. Where a joint assembly is formed of two bodies whose practice is concurrent respecting any particular question, the Chair is disposed to think it binding upon such assembly, and that in this case the fixed custom of both Houses based on constitutional requirements, to order the yeas and nays upon the call of two members, is binding, and the Chair will be obliged to recognize the custom in this instance.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 180.

3. The President decided that until the provision of the law has been complied with, which prescribes "that the joint assembly shall meet, and take at least one ballot each day," nothing else is in order. When that provision has been complied with, the Chair is disposed to hold that anything strictly appertaining to the business of the joint assembly is in order. The fixing of an afternoon session for the express purpose of balloting, in the opinion of the Chair, does strictly appertain to the proper business of this joint assembly, and is in accordance with precedent in other states, under the same or similar laws, and the Chair cannot refuse to entertain the resolution offered.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 261.

4. The President ruled that the right of petition being a constitutional right, and one which is very carefully guarded, and the choice of United States Senator having passed beyond the control of either House, or of the two Houses concurrently, the petition, being pertinent to the business before the joint assembly, would be received and read.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 277.

5. The President ruled that the petition having been received, read and laid upon the table, it has passed beyond the power of the President to exclude it, and the point of order was raised too late.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 278.

6. The President decided the question of privilege should have been raised as a point of order at the time the question was presented, and does not now involve any question of privilege, the paper being directed to the honorable members of the Senate and House of Representatives embracing all and not any particular class.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 293.

7. The President decided that a motion to take a recess, being subject to amendment and debate, was, according to all parliamentary law, superseded by a motion to adjourn, otherwise the joint assembly might be kept in session indefinitely, against its own wish.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 361.

8. The President ruled that the order of business being fixed by a majority of the joint assembly, it is competent for the joint assembly to change said order.—Journal of Senate, 1881, p. 424.

RULES OF THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT—TAKING THE CHAIR.

1. The President shall take the chair, each day, at the hour to which the Senate stands adjourned, when he shall call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read, which the Senate shall have power then to correct.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

2. The order to be observed in taking up business shall be as follows:

First—The asking leave of absence.

Second—The receiving of reports of committees, which shall be called for by the President, according to the order of the committees.

Third—The reading of bills in place. The President commencing on his left and recognizing all in their order from left to right, and all bills read in place shall be accompanied by two copies of the same.

Fourth—The offering of original resolutions.

Fifth—The consideration of executive nominations.

Sixth—The reading of bills the third time.

Seventh—The reading of bills the second time.

Eighth—The reading of bills the first time, and in that state shall not be subject to amendment or a vote thereon.

ORDER AND DECORUM—PRESIDENT TO PRESERVE.

3. It shall be the duty of the President to preserve order, prevent personal reflections, confine members in debate to the question and when two or more members rise at the same time, decide who shall be the first heard; but an appeal in all such cases shall lie to the Senate, and a member called to order may extenuate or justify.

BUSINESS AND DEBATES.

4. Members speaking shall address the President, and when presenting a paper shall first state its import. Members shall not speak more than twice on any question without permission of the Senate, nor be interrupted when speaking, except by a call to order by the President, or by a member through the President, or by a member to explain, or by a call for the previous question.

MOTIONS.

5. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall, before debate, be stated by the President. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member require it; but a motion may be withdrawn by the member making it before amendment, postponement, an order to lie on the table, or decision.

TO BE ENTERED ON JOURNAL.

6. Every motion shall be entered on the Journal together with the name of the member making it unless it should be subsequently withdrawn.

HOW INTERRUPTED.

7. A question regularly before the Senate can be interrupted only by a call for the previous question for amendment, postponement, commitment, or adjournment.

MOTION TO ADJOURN—WHEN IN ORDER.

8. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, excepting when on the call for the previous question, the main question shall have been ordered to be now put, or when a member has the floor, and shall be decided without debate.

ORDER OF MOTIONS—DEBATE ON THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

9. The motion for the previous question, for postponement, for commitment, and for amendment, shall take precedence in the order mentioned, and a motion for the previous question shall preclude any of the other motions from being made; a motion to postpone shall preclude a motion to commit; or to amend a motion to commit shall preclude a motion to amend. The motion for the previous question, postponement (other than indefinite postponement) or commitment, shall preclude debate on the original subject. The previous question shall not be moved by less than four members.

QUESTIONS FOLLOWING.

10. When a call for the previous question has been made and sustained, the question shall be upon pending amendments and the main question, in their regular order, and all incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the previous question has been made, and pending such motion shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

DEBATE ON QUESTIONS OF ORDER.

11. No debate shall be allowed on questions of order, unless there be an appeal, or reference by the President of the Senate. And on such appeal or reference no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the Senate.

FILLING UP BLANKS.

12. On filling up blanks, the question shall first be taken on the largest sum, greatest number, and most distant day.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF PRESIDENT PRO TEM.

13. In the absence of the President, the President pro tem. shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of President. On all questions, the President pro tem. shall vote last when occupying the chair.

SIGNING OF BILLS, ET CETERA, BY THE PRESIDENT.

14. Acts, orders, addresses, and joint resolutions shall be signed by the President in the presence of the Senate, after their titles have been publicly read, and the fact of signing shall be entered on the Journal; and writs, warrants, and subpoenas issued by the Senate shall be signed by him and attested by the clerk.

GENERAL DIRECTION OF HALL.

15. The President shall have the general direction of the hall. He may name a member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitutions shall not extend beyond four days.

RECONSIDERATION.

16. When a question has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any two members of the majority, or when the Senate has been equally divided, or a bill shall have failed to pass, by reason of not having a constitutional majority, for any two who voted in the negative to move the reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, report, amendment, or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken, or within the next five days of actual session of the Senate thereafter; and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn, and no member shall speak on the question more than once, or for a longer time than five minutes.

BILLS.

17. Every bill shall be read at length on three different days in open Senate. All amendments thereto shall be printed and laid on the desks of Senators before the final vote is taken on the bill. The final vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the same be entered on the Journal. No bill shall be declared passed, or signed by the President, unless a majority of all the Senators elected to the Senate shall be recorded as voting for the same.

AMENDMENTS.

18. No amendment shall be received by the President which destroys the general sense of the original section, clause, or paragraph. No amendment to bills by the House shall be concurred in by the Senate, except by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the Journal thereof.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

19. All bills shall be considered by a Committee of the Whole, unless the rule be dispensed with by unanimous consent. All amendments made in Committee of the Whole, shall be reported by the chairman to the Senate, and shall by him be moved to be inserted, and if adopted, shall then be entered on the Journal. Every bill shall be read at length in Committee of the Whole, and such reading shall be considered one of the readings required by the Constitution.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

20. Every report of a committee of conference shall be printed together with the bill as amended by the committee, before action shall be had on such report.

CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS OF THE HOUSE.

21. That the vote on concurring in bills amended by the House or on adopting reports of committees of conference, shall not be taken until said bills and reports have been placed on the files of Senators, and particularly referred to on their calendars.

APPROPRIATION BILLS FOR CHARITABLE PURPOSES.

22. No bills appropriating money for charitable or benevolent purposes shall be considered until after the general appropriation bill shall have been reported from committee.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

23. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of each session, until otherwise ordered:

- A Committee on Agriculture.
- A Committee on Appropriations.
- A Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.
- A Committee on Canals and Inland Navigation.
- A Committee on City Passenger Railways.
- A Committee on Congressional Apportionment.
- A Committee on Corporations.
- A Committee on Education.
- A Committee on Elections.
- A Committee on Executive Nominations.
- A Committee on Exposition Affairs.
- A Committee on Federal Relations.
- A Committee on Finance.
- A Committee on Forestry.
- A Committee on Game and Fisheries.
- A Committee on Insurance.
- A Committee on Judicial Apportionment.
- A Committee on Judiciary General.
- A Committee on Judiciary Special.
- A Committee on Law and Order.
- A Committee on Legislative Apportionment.
- A Committee on Library.
- A Committee on Mines and Mining.
- A Committee on Military Affairs.
- A Committee on Municipal Affairs.
- A Committee on New Counties and County Seats.
- A Committee on Pensions and Gratuities.
- A Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings.
- A Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.
- A Committee on Public Printing.
- A Committee on Public Roads and Highways.
- A Committee on the Public Supply of Light, Heat and Water.
- A Committee on Railroads.

OF WHAT CONSISTING.

The several committees shall consist of seven Senators, except the Committees on Corporations, Mines and Mining, Exposition Affairs and Insurance, which shall each consist of eleven Senators, and the Committees on Railroads, City Passenger Railways and Banks and Building and Loan Associations shall each consist of nine Senators, and the Committees on Judiciary General, Judiciary Special, Congressional Apportionment, Legislative Apportionment and Judicial Apportionment shall each consist of thirteen Senators, the Committee on Appropriations shall consist of twenty-one Senators, and the Committee on Executive Nominations shall consist of five Senators. The President pro tempore shall be ex-officio a member of all special and standing committees.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS OF COMMITTEES.

24. Every member of a committee shall attend the call of the chairman, who shall be the first-named person on such committee; and in case of his neglect to call the committee together, or in case of his absence by sickness or other cause, the committee shall attend the call of the next person named on the committee.

RULES IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

25. The rules and proceedings of the Senate shall be observed, as far as they are practicable, in the Committee of the Whole, excepting that a member may speak oftener than twice on the same subject. In Committee of the Whole, the previous question cannot be called, the yeas and nays required, nor can there be an appeal from the decision of the chairman.

ABSENCE.

26. No member shall absent himself without leave of the Senate, first obtained, unless prevented from attending by sickness, or other sufficient cause.

FILES OF THE SENATE.

27. The files of the Senate may be inspected by the members, but no paper shall be withdrawn therefrom without the consent of the Senate.

WHO PRIVILEGED TO THE FLOOR OF THE SENATE.

28. No person shall be admitted within the Senate Chamber (galleries excepted) during its sessions, unless invited by a member of the Senate except the members and officers of the two branches of the Legislature, the Governor, heads of departments, ex-members of the Legislature, and stenographers to report proceedings of the Senate for publication, under the direction of the President pro tempore. No person or persons shall be permitted to occupy the seats of Senators or pass across the floor of the Senate when the Senate is in session; nor shall any person or persons, at any time, be permitted to enter the room of the transcribing clerks or pass before the President. All obstructions in, and passing across the enclosed circle are prohibited.

DISPENSING WITH RULES.

29. The consent of two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to dispense with any rule.

DIVISION OF A QUESTION.

30. Any Senator may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it comprehends questions so distinct that one being taken away the rest may stand entire for the decision of the Senate. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed inadvisable; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

REFERENCE OF BILLS.

31. Every bill and joint resolution which may be received from the House of Representatives, or which may be read by a Senator in his place, shall, immediately after being presented to the Chair, be referred by the President to the appropriate committee, unless otherwise ordered.

CHARACTER OF BILLS READ IN PLACE, ET CETERA.

32. No member shall read in place, nor shall any committee, either standing or select, report any bill for the action of the Senate, granting corporate powers in any case, when the authority of granting such powers has been conferred upon any of the courts of this Commonwealth; or proposing to legislate upon any of the subjects prohibited by the seventh section of the third article of the Constitution; nor shall any bill be read in place, or reported from a committee, reviving, amending, or extending the provisions of any law, by reference to its title only, but the whole shall be re-enacted in words by such bill.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE ON A BILL ON THIRD READING.

33. When the Senate shall resolve to go into Committee of the Whole on a bill on third reading, except for special amendment, the question before the Senate, when the President shall have resumed the chair and the chairman of the committee has made a report, shall be, "Will the Senate agree to the report of the committee?"

JEFFERSON'S MANUAL TO GOVERN THE SENATE.

34. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the Senate and the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

WHEN LESS THAN A QUORUM IS PRESENT.

35. When, upon a call, which may be demanded by not less than four Senators, it is found that less than a quorum is present, it shall be the duty of the President to order the doors of the Senate to be closed, and to direct the clerk to call the roll of the Senate, and note the absences, after which the name of the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no excuse, or an insufficient excuse is made, may, by order of a majority of the Senators present, be sent for and taken into custody by the sergeant-at-arms, or his assistants appointed for the purpose, and brought before the bar of the Senate, where, unless excused by a majority of the Senators present, they shall be reprovved by the President for neglect of duty.

WHEN LESS THAN A QUORUM VOTE BUT PRESENT.

36. When less than a quorum vote upon any subject under the consideration of the Senate, not less than four Senators may demand a call of the Senate, when it shall be the duty of the President forthwith to order the doors of the Senate to be closed, the roll of the Senators to be called, and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present, either by answering to their names, or by their presence in the Senate, the President shall again order the yeas and nays, and if any Senator or Senators present refuse to vote, the name or names of such Senator or Senators shall be entered on the Journal as "present but not voting," and such refusal to vote shall be deemed a contempt, and, unless purged, the President shall direct the sergeant-at-arms to bring such Senator or Senators before the bar of the Senate, where he or they shall be publicly reprimanded by the President.

PROHIBITED LEGISLATION.

37. No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended on its passage through the Senate as to change its original purpose. No bill shall be considered unless referred to a committee, returned therefrom, and printed for the use of the members. No local or special bill shall be reported unless the same be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and of section eight of article three of the Constitution; and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the president or secretary of the committee reporting the bill.

EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS.

38. When nominations shall be made by the Governor to the Senate, they shall after being read by the Chief Clerk, without a motion, be referred by the presiding officer to appropriate committee, and after having been reported by the committee, the final question on every nomination shall be: "Will the Senate advise and consent to this nomination?" Which question shall not be put on the day on which the nomination or nominations are reported from committee, unless by unanimous consent.

All information communicated or remarks made by a Senator when acting upon nominations in committee, concerning the character or qualifications of the person nominated, shall be kept secret. If, however, charges shall be made against a person nominated, the committee may, in its discretion, notify such nominee thereof, but the name of the person making such charges shall not be disclosed.

When the consideration of executive nominations is reached in the order of business, a Senator may make a motion to go into executive session for the purpose of confirming the nominations which have been reported from a committee at a previous session and, if unanimous consent be given, also those which may be reported on the day the motion is made; and on the motion being agreed to, such nomination or nominations shall be considered the first order of the day until finally disposed of, unless the same shall be postponed by a majority of the Senate; but such business when once commenced shall not be postponed for more than five days, except in case of an adjournment of the Senate for a longer period.

When in executive session, no message shall be received from the Governor, unless it be relative to the nomination under consideration, nor from the House of Representatives, nor shall any other business be considered, except executive business, and the executive session shall not adjourn pending the consideration of the nomination until a time be fixed by a majority vote of those present for the next meeting of the executive session to resume the consideration thereof.

When a nomination is confirmed or rejected by the Senate, any two Senators, voting with the majority, may move for a reconsideration on the same day on which the vote was taken, or on either of the next two days of actual session of the Senate; but if a notification of the confirmation or rejection of a nomination shall have been sent to the Governor before the expiration of the time within which a motion to reconsider may be made, the motion to reconsider shall be accompanied by a motion to request the Governor to return such notification to the Senate. A motion to reconsider the vote on a nomination may be laid on the table without prejudice to the nomination, and shall be a final disposition of such motion.

RESOLUTIONS.

39. The following resolutions after they have been twice read, shall be referred to an appropriate committee, without debate (unless by unanimous consent the Senate shall otherwise direct) and if favorably reported by the committee, shall lie over one day for consideration after which they may be called up as, of course, under their appropriate order of business:

All Senate and House concurrent resolutions, excepting resolutions in reference to adjournments and those recalling bills from the Governor which shall be regarded as privileged;

Resolutions containing calls for information from the heads of departments, or to alter the rules;

Resolutions giving rise to debate, except such as relate to the disposition of matters immediately before the Senate, such as relate to the business of the day on which they were offered, and such as relate to adjournment or taking a recess.

LOUNGING IN SENATE PROHIBITED.

40. That the Librarian of the Senate be directed to keep the doors of the Senate chamber closed on Sunday to all persons except persons who are entitled under the twenty-eighth rule of the Senate; and that he be directed to call on any officer of the Senate to aid him in enforcing this order; and that on other days, when the Senate is not in session, the officers are hereby required to strictly prohibit any lounging within the Senate chamber by any person not connected with the Legislature, and that henceforth no officer be permitted to occupy the seat of a Senator at any time; that it shall be the duty of the President to see that this rule is enforced, and a persistent disregard of it by any officer shall be cause of dismissal by the President.

BILLS REQUIRING A TWO-THIRDS VOTE.

41. When bills which require a two-thirds vote are under consideration, the concurrence of two-thirds of all the Senators elected shall not be requisite to decide any question or amendment short of the final question: and on any other question short of the final one, a majority of Senators voting shall be sufficient to pass the same.

DISCHARGING COMMITTEES.

42. No committee shall be discharged from the consideration of a bill within five days of its reference, without unanimous consent of the Senate.

SMOKING PROHIBITED.

43. No person shall be permitted to smoke tobacco within the Senate chamber during the session of the Senate.

NEGATIVE BILLS.

44. A majority of all the members elected to the Senate shall be required to place a negative bill upon the calendar.

DIRECTION OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES.

45. All officers and employees of the Senate shall be subject to the order and direction of the Chief Clerk, who shall obey the direction and orders of the President and President pro tempore respectively, relative to the conduct of all business of the Senate.

BILLS TO BE PRINTED WHEN INTRODUCED, AND WEEKLY CALENDAR PREPARED.

46. All bills when introduced in the Senate shall be numbered consecutively and printed on pink paper. A weekly calendar showing the status of all bills shall be prepared for the use of the Senate.

*DECISIONS OF THE SENATE ON POINTS OF ORDER.

ADJOURNMENT.

"From Day to Day" by Less than a Quorum Means from Day to Day as Fixed by the Orders.

The Senate having fixed an order for sessions on Tuesdays and Fridays only, on a motion to adjourn, less than a quorum voting, Mr. Gordon submitted the point of order that under the Constitution it was only competent for less than a quorum to adjourn from day to day. The President decided that the phrase "from day to day" signified from day to day as fixed in the regular order of the Senate. Whereupon, the President decided the resolution carried, and adjourned the Senate until Friday morning next, at eleven o'clock. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 157.)

ADJOURNMENT, DAY OF FINAL.

When it begins.

After midnight of the session which began at eight P. M., June 11, the day for final adjournment having been fixed for twelve M., on June 12, report of a committee of conference was made, when Mr. Kennedy submitted the point of order that the report could not be acted upon at this time, as its consideration is prohibited by joint rule eight, which provides that "no bill, resolution, or order to which the signature of the Governor may be required, shall be passed by either House on the day of the final adjournment; and all such bills, resolutions and orders, after they have been duly transcribed and compared, shall be presented to the Governor for his signature, by the proper committee, before eight o'clock on the morning of the day of the final adjournment." Mr. Reyburn (acting President pro tempore) decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1885, p. 1189.)

AMENDMENTS.

To House Amendments, when not in Order.

Not in order to amend amendments made by the House of Representatives, to amendments made by the Senate, to a bill from the House of Representatives. (Senate Journal, 1844, pp. 935-6.)

Amendments made by the House of Representatives (consisting of two new sections) to amendments made by the Senate to a bill from the House of Representatives, having been concurred in by the Senate, a motion was made to amend those amendments by adding a new section.

The Speaker decided the motion to be not in order. From which an appeal was taken, and the decision sustained by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1850, p. 549.)

To Title in Order, when Concurring in House Amendments.

The Speaker decided that, in concurring in amendments made by the House of Representatives, it was in order for the Senate to amend the title to correspond with the amendments made by the House of Representatives. (Senate Journal, 1861, p. 254. See also Senate Journals, 1874, p. 692, and 1889, p. 364.)

Made on Second Cannot be Stricken out on Third Reading.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order to go into Committee of the Whole (the bill being on third reading) for the purpose of striking out the amendment that had been inserted on second reading. (Senate Journal, 1861, p. 547.)

In Order to Strike out on Third that which has been Inserted on Second Reading if other Matter is Included.

Mr. Thompson submitted the point of order, that the motion was not in order because it proposed to strike out on third reading an amendment which had been inserted on second reading. The President decided the point of order not well taken, as the proposed amendment included other matter, in addition to the proviso which had been inserted on second reading of the bill. (Senate Journal, 1891, p. 290.)

Negated on Second Reading can be Inserted in Committee of the Whole on Third Reading.

The point of order was raised, that an amendment, proposed to be inserted in Committee of the Whole, having been proposed and negated on second reading, could not be offered. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1874, p. 179.)

AMENDMENTS—Concluded.

Cannot be made to Bills that will Change Original Purpose.

The President pro tempore decided that the bill was so amended as to repeal the whole act of 1868, and then to extend it to the whole State, and was so altered in its passage as to be changed from its original purpose, and therefore is unconstitutional. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 389.)

Not Germane to Resolution, out of Order.

The President decided it out of order to amend a resolution to print the report of the Pennsylvania State College, by adding a provision for the appointment of a committee to investigate its accounts. (Senate Journal, 1875, p. 202.)

The President pro tempore (Mr. Penrose in the chair) was of the opinion that the original resolution of the Senator from Lebanon, pertained to a question of law or jurisdiction, whilst the substitute or amendment of the Senator from Bucks raised a question of fact. He therefore decided the point of order raised by the Senator from Lebanon to be well taken and that the amendment of the Senator from Bucks was not germane and therefore not in order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1891, p. 624.)

Can be made to Resolution Regulating Senate Business.

A resolution fixing an afternoon session for certain business pending, an amendment was offered fixing a session at a different time, on which the President ruled that the purpose of both the resolution and the proposed amendment being to regulate the business of the Senate, the amendment was germane, and therefore ruled the point of order to be not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1881, p. 1014.)

Senate can Reinsert Matter Stricken out in Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Gordon submitted the point of order "that the motion of the Senator from Delaware (Mr. Cooper) was not in order, as it proposed to insert in the bill a provision just stricken out in the Committee of the Whole." Decided not well taken. Decision sustained by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 625.)

To Amend Senate Bill Returned from House when in Order.

Mr. Grady submitted the point of order that, as the question before the Senate was on concurring in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to said bill, and the amendment proposed by Mr. Hughes, not being an amendment to the amendments made by the House, the motion was not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the motion out of order. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1241.)

Non-Concurred in by the House, to Recede from Affirmative Vote of Less than all the Senators Elected Sufficient.

Mr. Kennedy submitted the point of order, that the motion to recede from amendments made by the Senate being in effect a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill passed finally, it requires, for its adoption, a majority vote of all the Senators elected. Decided not well taken by the Senate. Mr. Kennedy then submitted the point of order, that the motion before the Senate is one of virtual concurrence in the action of the House on this bill, and that, in compliance with the constitution and Rule XXVIII of the Senate, it requires a majority vote of all the Senators to so concur. Decided not well taken by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1885, pp. 890-894.)

BILLS.

Consideration of, in Numerical Order.

The Senate decided that when bills on first reading are the pending order, it was not in order to proceed to the consideration of a bill not first in numerical order, without dispensing with the orders of the day. (Senate Journal, 1845, pp. 169-70.)

Negating First Section of, Does not Involve Defeat of Whole Bill.

The Speaker decided that the defeat of the first section of a bill did not necessarily involve defeat of the whole bill, should there be more than one section in such bill, and where such section or sections are sensible and independent of said first section. From which decision an appeal was taken, and the decision of the Speaker sustained by the Senate. (Senate Journal 1848, p. 566.)

Negated by the Senate, not in Order to Introduce and Consider Similar ones During the same Session.

The President decided that it was not in order to consider a certain bill, as one containing similar provisions had been voted down at the present session of the Senate. (Senate Journal. 1878, p. 856.)

Negated by the Senate, not in Order to Consider Bill of Similar Character from the House During the same Session.

The President decided that it is not in order to introduce into the Senate from the House of Representatives, or consider a bill which is in substance, in nature, or intent and purpose the same as a Senate bill which has been defeated in the Senate during the present session. An appeal was taken. The Senate sustained the decision. (Senate Journal, 1878, p. 834.)

BILLS—Continued.

House Bill Negatived by Senate—Not in Order for Senate to Consider Bill of Similar Import from House at Same Session.

The Senate decided that it was not in order to consider a House bill similar in character to a House bill which had been negatived by the Senate at same session. (Senate Journal, 1907, pp. 2116, 2636.)

Postponed for the Present, not in Order to Consider Bill on the Call of One Senator.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order to consider a bill which had been previously postponed, and which required the vote of a majority of the Senators present to bring up, at a time which had been set apart for the consideration of bills on call, which could be brought before the Senate on the call of one Senator. (Senate Journal, 1873, p. 1014.)

Showing no Evidence of Consideration by Committee can be Considered by Senate if According to the Records Regularly Reported.

Mr. Gobin submitted the point of order, that there was no evidence or marks on the bill to indicate that it had been regularly considered and reported from committee, and therefore, should not have been placed upon the calendar for consideration by the Senate. Whereupon, the President decided that as the absence of marks and date of reporting the bill on the back thereof did not vitiate the fact that, according to the record, the bill had been regularly reported, therefore the point of order was not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1893, p. 1066.)

When Amendments can be made to—What in Order on Final Passage of.

The Speaker decided that a bill having been reported, it can be amended only when upon its second or third reading, and that, upon the final passage of a bill, nothing is in order but discussion upon it, and the final vote upon it by yeas and nays, as required by the Constitution, except privileged questions, such as motion to reconsider. (Senate Journal, 1874, p. 192.)

Regularly Before the Senate, can be Disposed of by a Simple Majority.

The Speaker decided that when a bill was regularly before the Senate, a simple majority could make such a disposition of it as they saw proper. (Senate Journal, 1874, p. 722.)

Passed both Houses, but not sent to the Governor, Cannot be taken up.

Mr. White submitted the point of order that a bill having passed the Senate, been sent to the House and returned from that body as having been therein passed without amendment, it is not in order for the Senate to take up the bill and amend it further. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. Bills which have passed both Houses and have not been sent to the Governor cannot be taken up again and acted on. (Senate Journal, 1874, p. 908.)

Sent to Printer, Cannot be Considered Until Returned to the Senate.

The President pro tempore decided that a bill having been sent to the printer to be printed, it was not in possession of the Senate, and therefore it was not in order to consider it under the rules. (Senate Journal, 1875, p. 477.)

Motion to Recommit, for Amending to Change Character of, not in Order.

The President decided that a motion to recommit a bill to a committee, with instructions to the committee to amend the said bill so as to change its character, was not in order. (Senate Journal, 1876, p. 357.)

Negatived by Committee, Similar one can be Acted on by Senate.

The President decided that it was competent for the Senate to consider a bill similar to one which had previously been reported with a negative recommendation, if the said bill had not been acted upon by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1876, p. 906.)

General, Local and Special—Class Legislation.

The Senate having under consideration "An act to secure the operatives and laborers engaged in and about coal mines and manufactories of iron and steel the payment of their wages at regular intervals and in lawful money of the United States," the President pro tempore decided that the Constitution prohibits legislation of a local or special character regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing. A general law is one that applies to all persons. A local law is one that operates within a limited territory. A special law is one that is not confined in its operations by territory, but is limited to a particular class, sect, trade or interest. Under the Constitution, the Legislature has not the power to make arbitrary distinctions in order to escape the prohibition of the fundamental law, but the subject must have some natural or necessary quality to constitute a class. This view is sustained by Sedgwick on Statutes, and a decision by Judge Folgar, in 4 Heard, New York Reports. The bill before us proposes to legislate for a particular and special body to operate in particular localities. Overruled by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1879, pp. 667 and 695.)

After Reconsideration of Vote on, can be Acted on only when Reached in their Regular Order, Unless Regular Order be Dispensed with.

The vote negativing a bill on final passage having been reconsidered, the President pro tempore decided that the bill could not be considered until the order of "bills on final passage" was reached, except by two-thirds vote. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 599.)

A bill being on third reading, and the vote by which it passed second reading having been reconsidered, the President pro tempore decided that the bill could not be considered on second reading until that was reached, except by suspending the orders. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 613.)

BILLS—Concluded.

Objection to Consideration of, Reconsidered, must be made at the Proper Time.

The order of business being bills on third reading, the President pro tempore (Mr. Reyburn in the chair) was of the opinion that the objection of the Senator from Elk (Mr. Hall) was raised too late, and the ruling of 1879, cited by him, did not apply, the Senate having already reconsidered the several votes by which the bill had passed second reading, and the bill being already under consideration, worked a suspension of the orders. He therefore decided the point of order to that effect submitted by the Senator from Venango (Mr. Lee) to be well taken. (Senate Journal, 1881, p. 554.)

Amending Laws, must Recite in Full the Part to be Amended.

The Senate decided that a bill proposing to amend an act, failing to recite the section in full intended to be amended, conflicted with section 6, Article III, of the Constitution, and was, therefore, not in order. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 620.)

Raising Revenue, must Originate in the House.

A point of order was submitted by Mr. Lee that the amendment of the Senator from Delaware is not in order, because it adds a proviso to the bill which virtually makes it a bill for raising revenue, and all bills for raising revenue, by the Constitution, must originate in the House of Representatives, and the amendment is not germane, and changes the purpose of the bill. Decided well taken by Senate. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 711.)

On Final Passage of, Twenty-six votes in the Affirmative Necessary.

Mr. Adams submitted the point of order that, as there are at present only forty-nine members of the Senate, it requires the vote of only twenty-five Senators in the affirmative to finally pass a bill. Decided not well taken by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 544.)

Appropriating Money for the Erection of Monuments does not Require a Two-thirds Vote.

Mr. Stober raised the point of order that the bill under consideration appropriated money for the erection of a monument and required a two-thirds vote. The President decided the point of order not well taken, as this was an appropriation for the erection of a monument and not to a charitable institution of the State. (Senate Journal, 1903, p. 825.)

Objections to Consideration of, must be Raised at the Proper Time.

A bill being under consideration, Mr. Lee submitted the point of order that the bill, as amended, was not properly on the calendar, as contemplated by the rules, it having been imperfectly printed, and the bill could, therefore, not be considered at this time. Decided not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 635.)

Merits of, Debatable on Motion to Postpone Consideration of, to a Fixed Time.

Mr. McNeill submitted the point of order that it was not in order to discuss the merits of the main question, on a motion to postpone the consideration of the same until a definite time. The President pro tempore decided that the merits of the main question could be incidentally discussed on a motion to postpone to a day fixed, and the point of order was, therefore, not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1885, p. 664.)

Constitutionality of, to be Determined by the Senate.

Mr. McDonald submitted the point of order "that the bill was not in order for the reason that it was contrary to Article III, section 6, of the Constitution." The President pro tempore decided that as the question of the constitutionality of the bill is a matter which will be decided by the Senate in the consideration and final disposition of the bill, it is not in the province of the Chair, by decision, as to the constitutionality of the bill, to assume the duty and power properly vested in the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1893, p. 209.)

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

Is the Order when a Motion to Adjourn Fails, and Less than a Quorum Vote.

Mr. Gordon submitted the following point of order, viz: "I raise the point of order that upon the motion to adjourn, fourteen Senators have voted 'no' and eleven Senators have voted 'aye,' the motion to adjourn is therefore lost, and the question disposed of, and that, therefore, the Senate may proceed to consider other business, as, under the ruling of the Chair, it is not necessary that a quorum vote upon the motion to adjourn, and that a call of the Senate, as directed in the thirty-sixth rule, is not necessary, as that rule clearly only contemplates subjects before the Senate upon which it was necessary that a quorum vote, in order that the subject might be disposed of, as that rule directs that when a call of the Senate is made and a quorum disclosed to be present, the yeas and nays should be again taken upon the question on which the absence of a quorum was disclosed. In this case that rule would not apply as if the call showed a quorum present, the yeas and nays could not be again taken, for the original question—the motion to adjourn—is disposed of." The President decided that the motion to adjourn was lost, a majority having voted 'no;' but less than a quorum having voted, nothing was in order but a call of the House. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 162.)

COMMITTEES.

Powers of, Over Bills.

The Speaker decided that the committee to whom a bill had been referred had full power over the same, except that it could not change the title or subject thereof. (Senate Journal, 1857, p. 842.)

Mr. Flinn submitted the point of order, that after a bill has been reported by a standing committee and passed any reading in the Senate and recommitted to a standing committee that such committee has not the power to report such bill with a negative recommendation, because the Senate as a body has acted favorably upon the bill by passing it on a reading, and a part of the Senate, as represented by a standing committee, cannot negative that which the whole Senate has approved by passing through a reading, and that any such bill so reported negatively, by any standing committee should be placed upon the calendar for the consideration of the Senate in regular order. The President decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1899, p. 1933.)

Report of a Bill by a Minority of a Standing, in Order only by Consent of Majority.

Mr. Greer submitted the point of order that a minority of a standing committee cannot make a report from such committee (of a bill) without the consent of a majority thereof. The President decided that the point of order, as a general proposition, was well taken; but the bill having been reported, and ordered to be printed and placed upon the calendar, the point of order is submitted too late. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1030.)

Majority of those Voting in Senate Discharges, from Consideration of Bills.

Mr. Grady submitted the point of order that it required a majority vote of all the members of the Senate to discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and to place the same on the calendar. The President pro tempore decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1897, p. 1614.)

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

Amendments Just Inserted by, not in Order to Strike Out.

The Speaker decided that a motion to go into Committee of the Whole to strike out an amendment which had just been inserted in Committee of the Whole was not in order. (Senate Journal, 1873, p. 821.)

Motion to go into, when Divisible.

Mr. Macfarlane submitted the point of order that the motion to go into Committee of the Whole for special amendment, as indicated, cannot be divided, and, therefore, the call for a division is not in order. Decided not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 748.)

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES.

Senate can Instruct.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order for the Senate to instruct a committee of conference. The Senate reversed the decision. (Senate Journal, 1868, pp. 430, 431.)

Report of, not to be Considered on Day of Final Adjournment.

A motion was made, on the last day of the session, to proceed to the consideration of the report made by a committee of conference, which the Speaker decided to be out of order, it being in violation of the joint rule, which prohibits any bill or resolution, to which the signature of the Governor may be required from being passed by either House on the day of the final adjournment. (Senate Journal, 1872, p. 1154.)

Power of, over Whole Bill.

The Speaker decided that, in a committee of conference, on the appropriation bill, the difference between the two Houses on said bill extended to the whole bill, and not to any particular parts of it, although both may have separately voted for some parts of it. The Senate sustained the decision. (Senate Journal, 1873, p. 1058.)

Mr. McCracken submitted the point of order that the committee of conference, in amending the bill in certain particulars concerning which no differences existed between the two Houses, exceeded the authority conferred upon it, in violation of joint rule No. 3, which says that a committee of conference "shall not have power or control over any part of a bill, resolution or order, except such parts upon which a difference exists between the two Houses." The Senate decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 75.)

Report of Disagreement of, Discharges.

The question being propounded to the Chair, viz: Does the report of a committee of conference on its final disagreement operate as a discharge of the committee without further action of the Senate? Decided in the affirmative by the Senate. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 48.)

Being Dissolved, not Subject to Instructions.

Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that as the committee of conference on the part of the Senate had been dissolved, the resolution was not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the resolution out of order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 55.)

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES—Concluded.

Motion to Appoint, once Negatived, not again in Order Without Reconsideration.

And the question being, Will the Senate agree to the first division, viz: "That a committee of conference on Congressional apportionment be appointed?" Mr. McCracken submitted the point of order that the Senate has refused to appoint a committee of conference; and that it is proposed by this resolution to do something that the Senate has already refused to do without reconsidering the previous action of the Senate, and is, therefore, not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 56.)

Power of Senate Over.

Mr. Hughes submitted the point of order that the resolution contains a proposition in violation of the established method of legislation, in that it authorizes a conference committee to consider a bill which has not been presented or considered at this session (extraordinary), in violation of the joint rule No. 3, which expressly says that a committee of conference shall not have power or control over any part of a bill, except such parts upon which a difference exists between the two Houses, and therefore it is not in order. The President decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 61.)

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS.

When can be Read.

A motion to adjourn having been made and lost (less than a quorum voting), a request for the reading of some communications from the Governor was made, upon which Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that no business could be transacted at this particular time, and that the request was out of order. The President pro tempore (Mr. Gordon in the chair), decided the point of order not well taken. Mr. Cooper notified the Chair that he would appeal from his decision, whereupon, the President pro tempore (Mr. Gordon in the chair), ruled the appeal out of order, and decided that nothing was in order at this time but a call of the Senate or a motion to adjourn, and directed the clerk to read the communications, which were read. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 162.)

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

A Motion to Reconsider Vote on Nominations not Debatable.

The Speaker, when a motion to reconsider a vote on the executive nomination for president judge was pending, decided that the question was not debatable. (Senate Journal, 1847, p. 337.)

Point of Order made and Sustained when in, Senate can Subsequently Reconsider its Action Sustaining.

A motion was made by Mr. Stewart and Mr. Macfarlane that the vote had yesterday, by which the point of order presented by Mr. Gordon, in executive session, was sustained, be reconsidered. Mr. Gordon submitted the point of order that the motion was not in order; that the motion to reconsider could not be made as if the whole subject matter to which it related had been disposed of, and if the motion to reconsider was carried, there would be nothing before the Senate to consider. The point of order sustained, and which it is now proposed to reconsider, was that the motion to refer the nominations of Messrs. Sensesenderfer and Iseninger to a committee, was not in order. After the point was so decided, the nominations were then voted on and rejected, and are not now before the Senate; therefore, the motion to refer them could not be brought before the Senate by reconsidering the decision, that the motion was not in order. The President pro tempore decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 218.)

Five Day Rule not Applicable in Executive Session.

The Senate being in executive session, Mr. Humes submitted the point of order that as more than five days had elapsed since the vote was had, under Rule 16 of the Senate, a motion to reconsider is not now in order. The President pro tempore (Mr. Reyburn in the chair), decided the point of order not well taken, as the sixteenth rule, governing the Senate in regular session has not been applied to the Senate in executive session. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1056.)

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION.

What Resolutions in Order in.

Mr. Humes submitted the point of order that, as this special session of the Legislature was called only for the purpose of considering business designated in the proclamation of the Governor convening the same, and the resolution being in the nature of legislation requiring the Governor's signature, it is, therefore, not in order. The Senate decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 32.)

When in, Senate is Governed by the Ordinary Rules of Parliamentary Practice.

The President was of the opinion that the Senate is governed by the ordinary rules of parliamentary practice, and that those rules must govern the body at this time as well as any other rules, and decided that it required a two-thirds vote of the Senate to change any order of procedure or rule of the Senate. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1891, p. 402.)

INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT.

Of Motion to Reconsider Section does not Involve Postponement of Bill.

The Speaker decided that the Senate having postponed, indefinitely, a motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate agreed to the fourth section, such indefinite postponement did not involve a postponement of the bill under consideration. An appeal was taken. The Senate sustained the decision of the Speaker. (Senate Journal, 1864, p. 1031.)

Motion for, not Capable of Amendment.

The President decided that a motion to postpone, indefinitely, being already in its simplest form, is not capable of amendment. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 686.)

Does not Preclude Debate upon the Original Subject.

The President ruled that the motion to postpone indefinitely does not preclude debate upon the original subject. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 788.)

Motion for, of Motion to Reconsider, Limitation of Debate in Rule 16 does not Apply to.

Mr. Hall submitted the point of order that the spirit of the rule prohibiting a Senator from speaking longer than five minutes on a motion to reconsider, requires the rule to be applied likewise to a motion to postpone indefinitely such motion to reconsider. The President decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 172.)

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

A Single Objection Prevents Suspension of, at a Special Session for a Special Purpose.

The President pro tempore decided that a special session, for a special purpose, a single objection would prevent the suspension of the orders. (Senate Journal, 1875, pp. 460, 589.)

The President decided that at a special session for a special purpose, a motion cannot be considered without the unanimous consent of the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1875, p. 586.)

Motion to Extend Session Pending Consideration of Bill not in Order.

Mr. Hall submitted the point of order that a motion to extend session was not in order, pending the consideration of a bill. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 664.)

Two-Thirds Vote Necessary to Suspend.

Mr. Kennedy submitted the point of order, as the amendment offered by Mr. Cooper virtually involved a suspension of the special orders fixed for half past eleven o'clock today, it would require a two-thirds vote to adopt the same. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 779.)

Mr. Schnatterly submitted the point of order that the resolution involving a suspension of the regular order required a two-thirds vote in the affirmative to pass it. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1887, p. 205.)

Mr. Watres submitted the point of order that, as the motion involved a suspension of the regular order at twelve o'clock, two-thirds of all the members voting are required for its adoption. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1889, p. 307.)

Two-Thirds Vote Not Necessary to Pass Resolution Changing Time of Daily Adjournment.

The Senate having, by resolution, temporarily fixed certain hours for meeting and adjourning, Mr. Cooper, when resolutions were in order, offered the following: Resolved, That this day and hereafter the Senate will adjourn only upon motion adopted by a majority. Mr. Reyburn submitted the point of order that the resolution involves a suspension of the regular order, and therefore a two-thirds vote is required to pass it. Decided not well taken, as the resolution did not suspend any rule. (Senate Journal, 1887, p. 205.)

Superseded by Special Order.

Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that, as the order for the offering of original resolutions was not completed, the special order fixed by the Senate for half past eleven o'clock was not in order. Decided not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 780.)

Mr. Hughes then submitted the point of order that, as the resolution was still pending and undisposed of, its consideration could not be interrupted by other business. Decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 780.)

Take Precedence of Call for the Previous Question.

The Chair having decided the call for the previous question in order, and an appeal taken, and the question being, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Senate? The hour of one o'clock having arrived, and the orders of the day being called for, the President was about to adjourn the Senate, when Mr. Hall submitted the point of order that the orders of the day cannot be called pending a call for the previous question. The President decided the point of order not well taken and adjourned the Senate. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 172.)

Suspension of, Necessary to Offer Resolution after the Order of Resolutions has been gone Through with.

Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that the order of original resolutions have been gone through with today, the motion was not in order at this time except by suspension of the orders, which required a two-thirds vote. The President pro tempore (Mr. Mylin), decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 208.)

POINTS OF ORDER.

Cannot be Raised upon Another Pending Point of Order.

The President pro tempore decided that a point of order could not be raised upon another point of order pending before the Senate for consideration. (Senate Journal, 1876, p. 884.)

Can be Raised at any Stage of a Bill.

The President decided that a point of order be submitted at any stage of a bill, and was always in order. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 389.)

Cannot be Raised upon a Question after other Business has Intervened.

The President pro tempore decided that as a recess had been taken (a motion to that effect having been made and carried in the meanwhile), and as the Senate had come together after the recess had expired, it was then too late for a point of order to be raised upon the resolution which had been passed previous to the recess. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1891, p. 487.)

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

Call for, can be Renewed same Day.

The Senate decided that the previous question, having been called on the pending question of a bill and not sustained, could be called again on the same day. (Senate Journal, 1844, p. 690.)

On Bill, not Precluded by Motion to Postpone.

A motion for postponement being before the Senate, the previous question was called. The Speaker decided that if the call was sustained, the first question would be on the motion to postpone, and not on the bill pending. From which decision an appeal was taken, and the decision reversed by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1850, pp. 265, 269.)

Cuts off Motion to Indefinitely Postpone.

The Speaker decided that the previous question cut off a motion to postpone indefinitely. The Senate sustained the decision. (Senate Journal, 1868, p. 914.)

Call for, in order while a Senator is Speaking.

Mr. Cooper submitted a point of order that, as the Senator from Philadelphia (Mr. Adams) had the floor, the call for the previous question could not be recognized by the Chair at that time. The President decided the point of order not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 172.)

QUESTIONS.

When not Divisible.

Mr. Hall submitted the point of order that the question was not divisible, for the reason that if the first proposition was defeated the remaining proposition would be incomplete. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 696.)

Mr. Wallace called for a division of the question, so that a vote could be had upon each of the several sections offered as an amendment to the bill. The President decided that the question was not divisible, because the amendment would be incomplete unless adopted as a whole. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1225.)

When Divisible.

Mr. Gordon called for a division of the question (on a resolution to appoint a conference committee, and instruct the same), so that a separate vote could be had upon each of the two propositions contained therein. Mr. Adams submitted the point of order that the resolution could not be divided without destroying the sense, and the call for a division of the question was, therefore, not in order. The President decided the resolution could be divided without destroying the sense, and the point of order, therefore, not well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 56.)

When a Part of a Divisible Question Cannot be Considered.

And the question being, will the Senate agree to the second division, Mr. McCracken submitted the point of order that the first division of the question having been ruled out of order, the second division is incomplete and unintelligible, and therefore, not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 56.)

QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE.

Do not Take Precedence of Special Orders.

During the consideration of the resolution—(Resolved, As the sense of the Senate, that the ruling of the temporary President on the appeal taken from the decision of the President of the Senate on the point of order raised by the Senator from Delaware that amendments inserted on second reading could not be stricken out on the third reading of House bill No. 289, known as the repeal of the recorder's act of 1878, was an error, a tie vote having been cast, and the proceedings subsequent to the decision of the President of the Senate be corrected upon the Journal and rescinded)—The hour fixed for a special order having arrived, Mr. Reyburn then submitted the point of order that the question before the Senate was one of the highest privilege, and as such its consideration was in order until finally decided. The President submitted the point of order to the Senate for its decision. Decided in the negative by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1883, pp. 779, 780, 787.)

QUORUM.

Senators Announcing "Pairs" to be Counted in Making up.

Mr. Lee submitted the point of order that those members of the Senate who responded to the call of the yeas and nays just taken by stating as a reason for not voting that they were paired with absent Senators, are to be counted to ascertain whether there was a quorum present when the vote was taken. The President pro tempore decided the point of order well taken and the resolution agreed to. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 143.)

Senators Announcing "Pairs" and Signing Appeal to be Counted in Making up.

An appeal having been taken from the foregoing decision, and the yeas and nays called and the five Senators who signed the appeal declining to vote, Mr. Keyburn (acting President pro tempore), decided that with twenty-three Senators voting, the two Senators recorded as present and paired, and the records on the question, a quorum was present, and the question was decided in the affirmative. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 145; appeal from decision of the Chair, p. 145.)

The acting President pro tempore (Mr. Keyburn), directed the clerk to call the names of the Senators who signed the appeal from the decision of the Chair, viz: Messrs. Gordon, Kennedy, Biddis, Ross and Hess, and make a record of the same; which was done. And the acting President pro tempore (Mr. Keyburn), decided that with the Senators voting, the Senators present and paired, and the record on the question, a quorum was present, and the question determined in the affirmative. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 146.)

RECESS.

Amending Motion for.

The President decided it not in order to amend a motion "that the Senate take a recess" by adding thereto an amendment fixing the order of business when again convened. An appeal was taken, and the decision reversed. (Senate Journal, 1877, p. 574.)

A motion "that the Senate take a recess until eleven o'clock," having been amended by adding thereto "and that the Senate then proceed to the consideration of House bill No. 162," the President decided that the Senate having under consideration bills on third reading, and the bill proposed to be considered after the recess, being on second reading, it would require a two-thirds vote to pass the resolution. An appeal was taken, and the decision reversed. (Senate Journal, 1877, p. 576.)

Motion for, not in Order after Motion to Adjourn has been Defeated, a Quorum Voting.

A call for the previous question having been made on the first division of a motion to fix an afternoon session for the consideration of a certain bill, and less than a quorum voting thereon, a motion was made to adjourn and negatived, the vote showing more than a quorum present. A motion was then made to take a recess until tomorrow morning, when Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that as the vote on the motion to adjourn, just taken, demonstrated the presence of a quorum of the Senate, the motion just made was not in order, and that the question recurred upon the first division of the question now pending. The President decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, 1885, p. 334.)

RECONSIDERATION.

Of Negative Vote on Final Passage of Bill, when Motion for, in Order.

The Speaker decided it in order, without asking leave of the Senate, to make a motion to reconsider the vote negativing a bill on its final passage, when the order for the third reading of bills has been reached. (Senate Journal, 1844, pp. 836-37.)

Of a Bill Twice Negatived on Final Passage, not in Order.

A point of order was submitted by Mr. Laird, viz: That as the vote by which said bill was negatived on final passage had once been reconsidered, and the bill having again been negatived on final passage, the motion to again reconsider said vote was not in order. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 545.)

One Voting with Majority only can Second Motion for.

Mr. Gordon submitted the point of order that Mr. Laird was not competent to second the motion to reconsider, he not having voted with the majority. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 636.)

Not in Order after Five Legislative Days.

Mr. Cooper submitted the point of order that, as five legislative days had elapsed since the vote was had by which the amendment was agreed to, under the provisions of the sixteenth rule of the Senate, the motion was not now in order. Decided well taken. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 737.)

Motion for, once Negatived Cannot be Renewed.

A motion was made by Mr. Cooper that the vote had by which the Recorder's Repeal Bill, as amended, was agreed to a third time be reconsidered for the purpose of special amendment. The President decided the motion not in order, as a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill, as amended, was agreed to had once been made and negatived. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 788.)

RECONSIDERATION—Concluded.

Of Final Vote on Bill, must be Made Within Five Legislative Days.

A motion having been made to reconsider final vote on bill, Mr. Grady submitted the point of order that, as five legislative days had elapsed since the vote on final passage of the bill by the Senate, the resolution is not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the motion out of order. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1241.)

Of same Bill, not in Order a Second Time.

The bill being on final passage and a motion to reconsider the vote by which it passed third reading having been made, Mr. Lee submitted the point of order that, as the vote had by which the bill as amended was agreed to had once been reconsidered, and no amendments having been made to the bill, a motion to again reconsider was not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the motion out of order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 39.)

Necessary when Instructing a Conference Committee to do that which the Senate has Already Refused to do.

Mr. Hughes submitted the point of order that it is proposed by the resolution instructing a conference committee to do something that the Senate has already refused to do, without reconsidering the previous action of the Senate, and is, therefore, not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the resolution out of order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 62.)

A Motion for, Always in Order.

An objection having been made to the motion for the reconsideration of the vote by which a resolution was defeated, the President decided that a motion to reconsider is always in order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1891, p. 404.)

RESOLUTIONS.

Not in Order to Strike out and Insert New Subject Matter in.

The resolution relative to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, being before the Senate, the Speaker decided that an amendment striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting the words as follows, viz: "That the energies of the government should be devoted to the suppression of the existing rebellion, and to the maintenance of the Union and the Constitution, and it is inexpedient at this time for Congress to legislate upon the subject of abolishing negro servitude, either in state, territory, or the District of Columbia; and that our Senators in Congress be, and they are, hereby instructed, and our representatives requested to vote for such legislation as will best carry out the spirit and meaning of the foregoing resolution," was not in order. (Senate Journal, 1862, p. 283.)

Two-Thirds Vote Necessary to Pass Resolution Imposing Special Work on a Standing Committee.

On the passage of a resolution authorizing the Committee on Mines and Mining, of the two Houses, to make certain investigations, the President pro tempore (Mr. Grady in the Chair), decided that as all committees of the Senate were to be appointed by the President pro tempore, and as the resolution provided for the appointment or naming of a committee, it involved a suspension of the rule and required a two-thirds vote to pass the same; an appeal was taken from said decision and the Chair sustained. (Senate Journal, 1897, pp. 803, 811.)

RESOLUTION, CONCURRENT.

Necessary to Provide for Printing of Report of an Investigation Committee.

Mr. Gobin submitted the point of order, that a concurrent resolution is necessary to provide for the printing proposed in the resolution, and a concurrent resolution, which originated in the Senate, of the same character, having been defeated in the House, the resolution is not in order. The President pro tempore decided the point of order well taken and ruled that the resolution was not in order. (Senate Journal, 1891, p. 860.)

From House Recalling a House Bill which is on Second Reading Calendar, out of Order.

A resolution having been presented to the Senate recalling a House bill, Mr. Lyon submitted the point of order, that said bill having been regularly presented to the Senate as having passed the House of Representatives, committed to the proper Senate committee, considered by the same and reported to the Senate, and having passed first reading and now being on second reading calendar, the position of the bill is such that the request of the House contained in the resolution could not be complied with under the rules of the Senate. Whereupon, the President of the Senate decided the point of order well taken and ruled the resolution out of order. (Senate Journal, 1893, p. 1136.)

RULES.

Defeat of Motion to Suspend, Carries with it Whole Proposition.

A point of order was submitted by Mr. Cooper that, as the first division had been defeated, and the Senate had decided not to suspend the rules, the second division was not in order. The President decided the point of order well taken, and ruled the question out of order. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, P. 84.)

SENATORS.

Before Qualification, Cannot Present Papers.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order for a Senator-elect to present a paper to the Senate before he was qualified. (Senate Journal, 1866, p. 6.)

The Speaker decided that it was not in order to receive a paper from persons elected as Senators previous to their being qualified. The Senate sustained the decision. (Senate Journal, 1867, p. 6.)

May Vote on Question Affecting Seat of.

The Speaker decided that an amendment, directing that the name of a Senator, whose seat was contested, be omitted in calling the yeas and nays on the resolution before the Senate relating to the right of such Senator to a seat in that body, was not in order. An appeal was taken and laid on the table. (Senate Journal, 1871, p. 125.)

A question of order was raised that a Senator should not vote upon a question affecting his seat in the Senate. The Speaker submitted the question to the Senate, and it was decided that the question of order was not well taken. (Senate Journal, 1871, p. 127.)

Formal Resignation of, Necessary to Preclude their Voting.

The yeas and nays having been called and taken, before the result was announced, Mr. Gordon submitted the point of order that the two Senators from Allegheny (Messrs. Arnholt and Upperman) having resigned their seats, were not entitled to a vote, and their vote should not be counted in ascertaining the result on the pending question. The President pro tempore (Mr. Macfarlane in the Chair), decided the point of order not well taken, the Senate having no official knowledge of the resignation of the Senators named. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 209.)

SPECIAL SESSION.

For a Special Purpose Being Fixed, a Two-Thirds Vote not Necessary to Pass Resolution for General Business.

A special session of the Senate being already fixed for the afternoon for taking the vote on United States Senator, the President decided that a two-thirds vote was necessary to pass a resolution—"That when the Senate adjourns this A. M. it will be to meet at three o'clock this P. M." An appeal was taken and the decision reversed by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1877, p. 521.)

TIE VOTE.

On Appeal Sustains Decision of the President.

An appeal having been taken from the decision of the President of the Senate, and the vote of the Senate on the question of sustaining the decision, resulted in a tie, the President decided that a decision of the Chair on a point of order stands until reversed by a majority vote of the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1877, p. 163.)

On Appeal Reverses Chair's Ruling.

An appeal having been taken from the decision of the Chair, a motion was made to lay the appeal on the table. Not agreed to. On sustaining the decision of the Chair, the yeas and nays were taken and resulted in a tie vote. The acting President pro tempore (Mr. Hall), decided that the appeal was sustained, and the decision of the President overruled by the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1888, pp. 749, 750.)

VOTE.

Cannot be Recorded after Result is Announced by the Chair.

The yeas and nays having been called on the passage of a resolution, the names of Senators voting for and against it having been read by the clerk, the result announced by the President pro tempore, a Senator demanded that his vote, which he alleged had been cast but not recorded, should be recorded and counted. The President pro tempore decided that the Senator should have corrected the vote after it was read by the clerk, and before announced by the President pro tempore, and it could not be recorded and counted now. (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 615.)

Cannot be Recorded after the Call of the Yeas and Nays has been Completed, Except by Consent of the Majority.

The President pro tempore decided that the call of the yeas and nays having been completed in calling the name of the President pro tempore and recording his vote, the vote of the Senator from Cambria (Mr. Boggs) could not be recorded without the consent of the Senate. (Senate Journal, 1885, p. 195.)

Can be Changed on a Misapprehension of the Question.

The yeas and nays having been taken, and before the list of those voting had been read by the clerk, and the result announced by the Chair, two Senators asked leave to change their votes from the affirmative to the negative, whereupon the President pro tempore inquired of them whether they had voted under a misapprehension. Upon a point of order being raised, the Senate decided that the proper question to put to each of the two Senators is, "has the Senator voted under a misapprehension of the question?" (Senate Journal, 1879, p. 948.)

VOTE—Concluded.

Of Twenty-Six Senators in the Affirmative Necessary to Pass a Bill Finally.

The President decided that the constitutional requirements relative to the final passage of a bill is intended to apply to the whole number of Senators provided for by the Constitution, which would be fifty, and that the number required to be recorded in favor of a bill upon its final passage is a majority of the whole number of Senators elected, which would be twenty-six. (Senate Journal, 1881, p. 478.)

Too Late to Correct, on Bill after Other Business has Intervened.

Mr. Grady rose to a question of privilege and made the statement that the vote on House bill No. 35, as taken, was incorrect; that the vote of Mr. Moyer, in the affirmative had not been recorded, and if recorded, the bill would have received twenty-six affirmative votes, and would have passed the Senate. He then, upon leave given, moved that the vote be again taken on said bill. Mr. Merrick raised the point of order that the motion of Mr. Grady was not in order, the vote having been already taken and the result on said bill announced, and that other business had intervened. The Chair decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, 1897, p. 1799.)

YEAS AND NAYS.

Call of, out of Order when Senators Demanding same Decline to Vote.

On the completion of the call of the yeas and nays, and before the result was announced by the Chair, it appearing that less than a quorum had voted, the President pro tempore ruled the call out of order, because the Senators requiring the same had not voted. (Senate Journal, 1883, p. 1228.)

Call of, Cannot be Interrupted after First Senator's Name is Called.

Mr. Humes submitted the point of order that the motion was not in order at this time, the Chair having ordered the call of the yeas and nays, and the clerk having called the name of Mr. Adams. The President decided the point of order well taken. (Senate Journal, extra session, 1883, p. 174.)

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER.

TAKING THE CHAIR.

1. He shall take the chair at the hour to which the House shall have been adjourned, and immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read, which may then be corrected by the House.

ORDER AND DECORUM.

2. He shall preserve order and decorum, and, in debate, shall prevent personal reflections, and confine members to the question under discussion. When two or more members rise at the same time, he shall name the one entitled to the floor.

QUESTIONS OF ORDER—QUESTIONS OF ORDER TO BE REPORTED.

3. He shall decide all questions of order. An appeal from his decision shall be made by two members, or the Speaker may, in the first instance, submit the question to the House. All questions of order involving the determination of constitutional law, shall be submitted to the House on the request of five members. On questions of order, there shall be no debate, except on an appeal from the decision of the Speaker, or on reference of a question by him to the House, when no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the House. All decisions upon the questions of order shall be noted by the clerk, and placed at the end of the Journal of each session, with reference to the decisions as stated in the Journal.

BEHAVIOR OF MEMBERS.

4. While the Speaker is putting the question, or addressing the House, none shall walk out of or across the House; nor in such case, or when a member is speaking, shall entertain private discourse; nor while a member is speaking, shall pass between him and the Chair.

APPOINTMENT OF STANDING, SELECT AND CONFERENCE COMMITTEES.

5. The Speaker shall appoint the members of standing, select and conference committees unless otherwise ordered by the House. All conference committees shall be composed of members who vote in the majority on the point or points of difference; but the committee shall not have power to control over any part of the bill, resolution or order except parts as to which a difference exists between the House and the Senate.

SIGNATURE OF SPEAKER.

6. All acts, addresses, and joint resolutions shall be signed by the Speaker in the presence of the House, after their titles have been publicly read immediately before signing, and the fact of signing shall be entered upon the Journal; and writs, warrants, and subpoenas, issued by the House, shall be signed by him, and attested by the clerk.

CARE OF THE HALL—SUBSTITUTION.

7. He shall have a general direction of the hall. He may name a member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment, except when the Speaker obtains leave of absence, in which case he may depute a member as Speaker pro tempore during such leave, which shall not exceed ten days.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

8. After the reading of the Journal each day, the order of business shall be as follows:
First—Report by the Speaker of his reference to Committees of bills, letters, petitions, memorials, remonstrances and accompanying documents.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Second—Reports of standing and select committees may be made. (List is here called over.)

Third—Leave of absence may be asked.

Fourth—Resolutions.

Fifth—After the foregoing orders have been finished the following shall be the orders of the day.

For Mondays—First—Motions to recommit may be made.

Second—Unfinished business (other than bills) may be considered.

Third—Bills on first reading.

For Tuesdays—Bills on third reading and final passage.

For Wednesdays—Bills on second reading.

For Thursdays—Bills on second reading.

For Fridays—First—Motions to recommit may be made.

Second—Unfinished business (other than bills) may be considered.

Third—Bills on first reading.

When the regular orders prescribed for any day shall be gone through, the following shall be the order of business:

First—Bills on third reading and final passage.

Second—Bills on second reading.

Third—Bills on first reading.

MANNER OF PRESENTING PETITIONS.

9. Letters, petitions, memorials and accompanying documents shall be filed with the Chief Clerk to be by him handed to the Speaker for reference to appropriate committees. A member filing such petition or other papers shall endorse thereon the general purport thereof and his name and the district he represents, and upon the reference thereof, the Speaker shall announce said name and title, which shall be entered upon the Journal.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

10. Bills shall be introduced by filing with the Chief Clerk, to be by him handed to the Speaker for reference to appropriate committees and report at the session following the day of presentation.

OF BUSINESS AND DEBATES.

MOTIONS, ET CETERA.

11. No member shall be permitted to make a motion, or address the Speaker, unless such member be at his own desk.

MANNER OF ADDRESSING THE HOUSE.

12. When a member is about to speak in debate, or to communicate any matter to the House, he shall rise, and respectfully address himself to "Mr. Speaker," confining his remarks to the subject before the House, and avoiding personal reflections.

TRANSGRESSION OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE.

13. If any member in debate transgress the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may through the Speaker, call him to order, the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted by the House to explain; the House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the Speaker shall be submitted to, and if the case require it, the member so called to order shall be liable to the censure of the House.

ORDER OF SPEAKING.

14. No member shall speak more than twice on the same subject, without leave of the House.

NOT TO BE INTERRUPTED—NOR NAMED.

15. No member, when speaking, shall be interrupted, except by a call to order by the Speaker, or by a member through the Speaker, or by a member to explain, or by a motion for the previous question; nor shall any member be referred to by name in debate, unless for transgression of the rules of the House, and then by the Speaker only.

MOTIONS.

FORM OF PUTTING QUESTIONS.

16. All motions made and seconded shall be repeated by the Speaker, who shall put the question, distinctly, in the following form, viz:

"As many as are of the opinion (as the question may be), say Aye."

And after the affirmative is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion say No."

DIVISION OF THE HOUSE.

But the Speaker, or any member, may call for a division of the House, when the Speaker shall again put the question distinctly and in the following manner, viz:

"As many as are in the affirmative (as the question may be), will rise."

He shall put the opposite side of the question: "As many as are in the negative will rise."

MOTIONS IN WRITING.

17. If the Speaker, or any two members, require it, all motions and amendments shall be written in ink.

MAY BE WITHDRAWN.

Such motions or amendments may be withdrawn by the mover and seconder before amendment or decision, and, if withdrawn, the proceedings had thereon shall be expunged from the Journal.

DIVISION OF QUESTION—MOTION TO STRIKE OUT AND INSERT INDIVISIBLE.

18. Any member may call for the division of a question, which shall be divided, if it comprehends questions so distinct, that one being taken away, the rest may stand entire for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

OF SUBSTITUTE.

No motion can be received to postpone for the purpose of introducing a substitute.

PRIVILEGED QUESTIONS.

MOTIONS AND PRIVILEGED QUESTIONS.

19. No business regularly before the House shall be interrupted, except by motion—
 For adjournment.
 For the previous question, namely, "Shall main question be now put?"
 For postponement;
 For commitment; or
 For amendment.

ADJOURNMENT.

20. A motion for adjournment shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate, except that it cannot be received when the House is voting on another question, nor while a member is addressing the House.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

21. The previous question shall not be moved by less than twenty members rising for that purpose, and shall be determined without debate; but when the previous question has been called and sustained, it shall not cut off any pending amendment, but the vote shall be taken without debate, on the amendments in their order, and then on the main question.

POSTPONEMENT—COMMITMENT—AMENDMENT.

22. A motion for postponement shall preclude commitment. A motion for commitment shall preclude amendment or decision on the original subject.

MOTIONS TO RECONSIDER.

23. A motion for reconsideration shall be permitted, when made and seconded by members who were in the majority on the original question, and within five days in which the House is in session after the decision, excepting when a bill or resolution shall have been recalled from the Governor, in which case a motion to reconsider shall be entertained though more than five days shall have elapsed. When a motion to reconsider is lost, it shall not be again renewed on the same question.

FILLING BLANKS.

24. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the largest sum, greatest number and remotest day.

COMMITTEES.

25. Committees may be of four kinds, viz:
 Committees of the whole House.
 Standing committees.
 Select committees.
 Conference committees.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

MANNER OF PROCEEDING IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

26. The rules and proceedings observed in the House shall be observed as far as they are practicable, in Committee of the Whole, except that a member may speak oftener than twice on the subject, nor can a motion for the previous question be made therein.

SPEAKER TO APPOINT CHAIRMAN.

27. When the House resolves into a Committee of the Whole the Speaker shall appoint a chairman.

AMENDMENTS MADE THEREIN, NOT TO BE READ IN THE HOUSE.

28. Amendments made in Committee of the Whole shall not be read when the Speaker resumes the chair, unless required by one or more of the members.

BILLS.

CONSIDERATION BY COMMITTEE—PRINTING.

32. No bill shall be considered unless referred to a committee, returned therefrom, and printed for the use of the members.

READING BILLS—NOT TWICE ON THE SAME DAY—PRINTING OF AMENDMENTS—YEAS AND NAYS ON.

33. Every bill and every resolution providing for an amendment to the Constitution shall be read at length on three different days; all amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the final vote is taken thereon; and no bill shall become a law and no such resolution be adopted unless, on its final passage, the vote be taken by yeas and nays. The names of the persons voting for and against the same shall be entered on the Journal and a majority of the members elected be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

WHEN BILLS NOT TO BE REPORTED.

34. No committee, either standing or select, shall report any bill for the action of the House, the passage of which is prohibited by the Constitution of the State, as follows, viz:

PROHIBITED LEGISLATION.

Article III, Section 7. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens; regulating the affairs of counties, cities, townships, wards, borough or school districts; changing the names of persons or places; changing the venue in civil or criminal cases; authorizing the laying out, opening, altering or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys; relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams, which form boundaries between this and any other state; vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys; relating to cemeteries, grave-yards or public grounds, not of the State; authorizing the adoption or legitimation of children, locating or changing county seats; erecting new counties or changing county lines; incorporating cities, towns or villages, or changing their charters; for the opening and conducting of elections or fixing, or changing the place of voting; granting divorces; erecting new townships or boroughs; changing township lines; borough limits or school districts; creating offices or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts; changing the law of descent or succession; regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, aldermen, justices of the peace, sheriffs, commissioners, arbitrators, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate; regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of aldermen, justices of the peace, magistrates or constables; regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses, and the raising of money for such purposes; fixing the rate of interest; affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment; remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury; exempting property from taxation; regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing; creating corporations, or amending, renewing, or extending the charters thereof; granting to any corporation, association, or individual, any special or exclusive privilege or immunity, or to any corporation, association, or individual, the right to lay down a railroad track; nor shall the General Assembly indirectly enact such special or local law by the partial repeal of a general law; but laws repealing local or special acts may be passed; nor shall any law be passed granting powers or privileges in any case where the granting of such powers and privileges shall have been provided for by general law, nor where the courts have jurisdiction to grant the same or give the relief asked for.

ACTION ON BILLS.

35. All bills and joint resolutions reported affirmatively shall be placed on the files and calendars in their order, and placed upon the desks of the members by the Sergeant-at-arms.

FIRST READING.

When bills on first reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar and announce each bill in numerical order, when they shall be severally read at length and agreed to without amendment or debate, and journalized accordingly.

SECOND READING.

When bills on second reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar, and having announced each bill in its order, it shall be considered in the committee of the whole House; when the bill is reported back to the House the question shall be put, "Will the House agree to the report of the committee of the whole?" and, if agreed to, any amendments made by the committee of the whole shall become a part of the bill. The House shall then immediately proceed to the second reading of the bill: Provided, That when a bill has been read at length in committee of the whole House, it shall be considered one of the readings required by the Constitution, and the bill shall not be again read at length on second reading, but the question shall be "Will the House agree to the bill?" which shall be subject to amendment in any part. No bill shall be considered in committee of the whole House unless called up by a member, and if not called up for two successive weeks it shall be dropped from the calendar unless otherwise ordered by the House.

THIRD READING.

When bills on third reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar and announce each bill in its order by its number and title, when it shall be read at length, and having been agreed to, the Speaker shall announce as follows:

"This bill has been read three times at length, and agreed to, upon three different days. The question is now, Shall the bill pass?" When, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays shall be taken. Bills on final passage and third reading shall be placed upon the calendar in the order in which they were agreed to on second reading.

The Resident Clerk shall prepare all calendars of bills on first, second, and third reading for consideration, in their order.

CALL FOR BILL OR OTHER SUBJECT.

36. On the call of a member for bill or other subject, on the table of the House, the question shall be decided without debate or amendment.

NEGATIVED BILLS.

37. The recommendations by a committee that a bill be negatived shall not affect its consideration by the House but the words "negative recommendation" shall be printed conspicuously on a line above the title of the bill, but such bill shall not be placed upon the calendar except by a majority of the members voting upon such motion, but if such motion be negatived once, it shall not be renewed.

No bill negatived by a committee shall be placed upon the calendar of the House unless a motion to place such bill on the calendar be made within five days after such bill is reported from committee.

BILLS NOT TO BE AMENDED BY ADDING IRRELEVANT MATTER.

38. No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto, or incorporating therewith, any other bill or resolution pending before the House, nor shall a motion or proposition be entertained under color of such an amendment; nor shall any bill or resolution be amended by substituting therefor, under a motion to strike out, or otherwise, any other bill or resolution, on a subject different from that under consideration, without the unanimous consent of the House.

PERSONS PRIVILEGED.

PERSONS PERMITTED TO COME WITHIN THE BAR—SERGEANT-AT-ARMS OR DOOR-KEEPER TO GIVE NOTICE.

39. None but members of the Senate, their officers, the Governor and heads of State Departments, Judges of the courts of this Commonwealth, the members of their families and families of the members of the present House and Senate, former members of the Legislature, when introduced by a member of the present House, and others who may be specially introduced by a member, by permission of the Speaker, shall be permitted to come upon the floor of the House during its session; and no person, not a member of the Legislature, shall be permitted to come upon the floor of the House, or sit in any seats appropriated for the members, or interrupt a member by speaking to him in his seat, while the House is in session; and it shall be the duty of the sergeant-at-arms or doorkeeper to give notice to any person offending against this rule.

NO SMOKING ALLOWED—ENTERING TRANSCRIBING CLERK'S ROOM PROHIBITED.

40. It is not permitted to any person to smoke tobacco at any time within the chamber of the House.

41. No person or persons shall, at any time, be permitted to enter the room of the transcribing clerks, except the members and officers of the General Assembly, and it shall be the duty of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper to see that the foregoing rules are observed.

OATH OF OFFICERS.

OATH ADMINISTERED TO OFFICERS.

42. The Speaker of the House shall administer to the officers of the House an oath or affirmation that they will severally support the Constitution of Pennsylvania and of the United States, and that they will also discharge the duties of their respective offices with fidelity; and that they will not knowingly demand or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for the performance or non-performance of any act or duty pertaining to their office, other than the compensation allowed by law.

RULES.

ALTERATION OF RULES.

43. Any rule of the House may be suspended at any time, for a specific purpose, by a majority vote; after the accomplishment of which purpose the rule shall remain in force as before.

Any motion to alter or amend the rules permanently shall lie over one day and shall be adopted by a majority vote.

The rules shall be published in Smull's Legislative Hand Book, a copy of which shall be delivered to each member at the commencement of each session.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REPORTS TO BE IN WRITING.

44. All reports of committees shall be in writing; Provided, That the minority of a committee may make report in writing, setting forth the reasons of their dissent.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE SENATE.

45. Communications from the Senate to the House shall be read and information shall be given to the Senate whenever any proposition coming from that body shall be concurred in.

ORDER OF CALLING THE ROLL.

46. When the names of the members shall be called, it shall be done in alphabetical order, except "Mr. Speaker," who shall be called last.

YEAS AND NAYS—REASON FOR VOTES.

47. The yeas and nays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them, be entered on the Journals, and the members shall have the right to insert the reasons of their votes on the Journals.

ABSENCE.

48. No member shall absent himself without obtaining leave of the House.

VOTING.

49. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question unless he be within the bar, and when the yeas and nays are called he be present to answer to his name.

CHANGING OF VOTES.

50. On the call of the yeas and nays, the clerk shall read the names of the members; after they have been called no member shall be permitted to change his vote, unless he, at that time, declares that he voted under a mistake of the question.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

51. When amendments made by the Senate to bills are on second reading, it shall be the duty of the Speaker, without a motion, to put the question, "Will the House concur in the amendment (or amendments) made by the Senate?" and the vote be immediately taken; Provided, The members of the House shall first have been furnished with printed copies of the bill so amended, unless a motion to postpone or refer shall be made.

WHEN LESS THAN A QUORUM VOTE, BAR OF THE HOUSE TO BE CLOSED.

52. When less than a quorum vote on any subject under the consideration of the House, it shall be the duty of the Speaker forthwith to order the bar of the House to be closed, and that the roll of members be called by the clerk, and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present, either by answering to their names or by their presence in the House, the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt; and, unless purged, the Speaker shall order the sergeant-at-arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privilege of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending, until the contempt be duly purged.

BILLS RETURNED BY THE GOVERNOR VETOED.

53. All veto messages, upon being announced by the Speaker, shall be read and reconsideration of the bill proceeded with.

SESSIONS ON MONDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

54. The House will convene on Mondays at 8 o'clock P. M. and adjourn at 10 o'clock P. M., and on Fridays will convene at 9 o'clock A. M. and adjourn at 11 o'clock A. M.

PEDDLING WITHIN THE BAR OF THE HOUSE PROHIBITED.

55. No person shall be permitted to hawk, peddle or offer for sale any apples, candies, nuts, or other articles of traffic at any time within the hall of the House; and it shall be the duty of the sergeant-at-arms and the doorkeeper to strictly enforce this rule.

MEMBERS NOT PERMITTED TO RECORD VOTES IN CERTAIN CASES.

56. No member shall be permitted to record his vote who neglects to vote when his name is first called by the clerk.

WHEN COMMITTEES MAY BE DISCHARGED FROM CONSIDERATION OF A BILL.

57. That after a bill has been ten days in the hands of a committee, after having been referred to it, a vote of sixty members shall be sufficient to discharge the committee from a further consideration of the same.

LOUNGING PROHIBITED IN THE HALL.

58. That it shall be the duty of the sergeant-at-arms, doorkeeper, and their assistants to prevent all persons not connected with the Legislature or the departments, or introduced by a member, from assembling in the halls at any time when the body is not in session, for the purpose of lounging, loafing or gossiping. For the purpose of enforcing this rule at least two of said officers shall be in attendance at all times, and the persistent neglect or disregard of this rule shall be cause of dismissal by the Speaker.

REPORTS OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES.

59. Reports of Conference Committees shall be presented, printed, and placed upon the files of amended bills before the same shall be considered.

APPROPRIATIONS.

60. No bills appropriating money for charitable or benevolent purposes will be considered further than second reading until after the general appropriation bill shall have been reported from committee.

BILLS READ IN PLACE SHALL BE ACCOMPANIED BY COPIES THEREOF.

61. That every bill introduced shall be accompanied by two copies thereof certified by the member presenting the same to be true and correct copies of the original, one of which copies shall be filed with the resident clerk for the use of the members of the press, and one for the use of the printer.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEE TO COMPARE BILLS.

62. That every transcribed bill shall be reported to the House by the chairman of the Committee to Compare Bills, or a member thereof, upon a call of the standing committees, and that every such reported bill shall have endorsed thereon a certificate signed by the clerk of said committee that the same is a true and correct copy of the bill as the same shall have passed the House.

COMMITTEE ON RULES.

63. A committee of five shall be appointed by the Chair, which together with the Speaker ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Rules, and shall report to the House from time to time, rules for the government thereof, and amendments to such rules; said committee shall be privileged to report at any time, and said report shall be adopted by a majority vote.

NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS.

64. (a) Any person accorded the privileges of a newspaper correspondent must be the telegraphic correspondent of a daily newspaper, or of a recognized press association, who is not engaged in any department of the State government, or in any other business, or must be the official reporter for a Harrisburg daily newspaper; and no more than one representative of each newspaper shall be admitted to the press gallery at the same time.

(b) All applications for admission to the press gallery must be made to the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Such application shall state the name of the newspaper, its location, times of publication, and be signed by the applicant.

(c) The Speaker shall verify the statements made in such application, and if the application is approved by him, he shall issue a correspondent's card, signed by him and by the President of the Legislative Correspondents' Association.

(d) The correspondents shall not visit the members in their seats during the sessions of the House and shall abide by such rules and regulations, as may be adopted by the Rules Committee of the House of Representatives.

(e) The card issued by the Speaker of the House must be presented when required by any sergeant-at-arms, or doorkeeper of the House. It shall not be transferable. The transfer or loan of such card to any one shall be followed by its cancellation and the withdrawal of all its privileges from the correspondent so offending.

(f) The gallery allotted to newspaper correspondents shall be for their exclusive use and persons not holding correspondents' cards shall not be entitled to admission thereto.

VERIFICATION OF THE ROLL.

65. After the completion of a roll call, any member of the House may demand a verification of the roll by the clerk, and if the vote or votes of members recorded as voting shall be challenged, in writing, by any member, and the votes so challenged would change the result, the announcement of the vote shall be postponed until the Speaker shall have investigated the allegations made, when the roll call shall be corrected, if necessary, and the true result shall be announced by the Speaker.

RESOLUTIONS.

66. All resolutions, after they have been read twice shall be printed and lie over for one day, after which they may be called up under their appropriate order of business.

This rule shall not apply to the following resolutions, viz:

- Recalling Bills from the Governor.
- Recalling Bills from one House to the other.
- Requesting information from Heads of Departments.
- Those emanating from the Committee on Rules.
- Those relating to adjournment.
- Those discharging committees.
- Those placing negatived bills upon the calendar.

PINK BILLS, CALENDAR AND SUPPLEMENT.

67. All bills as soon as introduced shall be printed on pink paper for the use of Members, and shall be numbered consecutively. At the beginning of each day's session a calendar of bills shall be placed upon the desk of the Speaker, of each Member and of each Clerk. This calendar shall be printed on pink paper and shall show for each bill introduced, up to date, the number, title, name of Member introducing the bill, the date of introduction and the committee to which each bill is referred. At the beginning of each week, a supplement printed on white paper, giving the number, status and last printer's number of each bill, shall be filed with this calendar.

DISPOSITION OF HOUSE BILLS ON POSTPONED CALENDAR.

68. That any House bill placed upon the postponed calendar not called up within five days on which the House is in session, after being placed upon said calendar, shall be dropped unless the time be extended by vote of the House upon motion for cause shown.

DECISIONS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON POINTS OF ORDER.*

ADJOURN.

Not in Order to Entertain Two Consecutive Motions to.

The Speaker decided that it is not in order to entertain two consecutive motions to adjourn, if no other business of the House has intervened at the time the motion was made. (Journal H. R. 1843, p. 361.)

The point of order was raised that the motion was out of order, because no business had intervened since the last motion to adjourn had been decided in the negative. Speaker decided point well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 920.)

Motion to, not in Order, when Previous Question Called and Sustained.

The Speaker decided that a motion to adjourn was not in order when the previous question had been called and sustained, and was still pending. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1857, p. 509.)

Motion to, not in Order, When Hour of Adjournment is Extended for a Specific Business, until gone through with.

The Speaker decided that a motion to adjourn was not in order when the House had extended the hour of adjournment for a specific object, until the business for which the adjournment was extended had been disposed of. An appeal was taken and laid on the table. (Journal H. R., 1864, p. 783.)

Motion to, Always in Order.

That according to former rulings, a motion to adjourn is not in order until the bill under consideration is disposed of. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 930.)

Mr. Haag submitted the point of order that inasmuch as there was no quorum present, the Speaker having ordered the doors of the House to be closed, the question of adjournment is not in order until the doors are opened. Decided not well taken. (Legislative Record, 1901, p. 605.)

Motion to, takes Precedence over Motion to Adjourn to a Stated Time.

The point of order was raised that a motion to adjourn takes precedence over a motion to adjourn to a stated time. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 938.)

ADJOURNMENT.

Final, Motion to Amend Resolution for.

The Speaker decided that a motion to amend a resolution for the final adjournment of the Legislature by adding thereto the following: "Provided, That in order to avoid the expense attendant upon the meeting of the convention of the two Houses, in October next, to which it stands adjourned, the members of the two Houses shall re-assemble previous to the final adjournment of the Legislature, for the purpose of electing a person to represent this Commonwealth in the Senate of the United States, in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, and the laws of the Commonwealth," was in order. The House overruled the decision of the Speaker. (Journal H. R., 1855, p. 826.)

Extension of Time for, Requires Suspension of the Rules.

Mr. Brooks submitted the point of order that the morning hour for adjournment was fixed by the rules of the House and could only be extended by a suspension of the rule. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1034.)

From Wednesday until the Following Monday not in Contravention of Constitution.

A motion was made that when the House adjourns this Wednesday evening it be to meet on next Monday evening at 9 o'clock. The point of order was submitted that it was unconstitutional for the House to adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the Senate. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken; that an adjournment of the House from Wednesday till the succeeding Monday was not an adjournment for more than three days as provided by the Constitution of Pennsylvania, Sunday being a dies non. See Buckalew on the Constitution of Pennsylvania, edition 1883, p. 52. Construction: It has long been held that the three days' limitation in this section (section 14, art. 2) is exclusive of Sundays, and such is the settled construction. Therefore, whether natural or secular days were intended by the authors of the limitation is not now a question of practical importance. Judicial Opinion: West Philadelphia Passenger Ry. Co. v. Union Passenger Ry. Co., and Bancroft v. same, 29 Legal Intel. 196, 4 Leg. Gaz. 193. (Journal H. R. 1897, p. 1114. See also Senate Journal, 1913, p. 1127.)

*These decisions are published as found in the Journals of the House of Representatives and the Legislative Record or Legislative Journal. Their correctness as rulings is left to the judgment of the reader.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Of Notice of Local or Special Bills Must be Published in Two Papers in each of the Counties Affected.

The point of order was raised that advertisement of local or special bills shall be in at least two newspapers, published in each of the counties to be affected. The Speaker submitted the question to the House for its decision. The House decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1876, p. 790.)

On third reading of bill No. 224, the point of order was raised that the bill affects the counties of Allegheny, Westmoreland, Fayette, Greene and Washington; that the notice of this bill was only advertised in Allegheny, in one paper, and in two papers in Washington, and not published in Westmoreland, Fayette or Greene, and therefore, not properly advertised, the principal office of the corporation being situated in the city of Pittsburgh. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. The House sustained the decision of the Chair. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 825, 826, 827.)

The Speaker ruled that a bill is not properly before the House, it affecting two counties, when notice for the proposed application has not been advertised in the two counties (the locality affected thereby), as required by section eight of the third article of the Constitution. (Journal H. R., 1878, p. 837.)

Proof of Publication of, must be Exhibited before Final Vote is taken on Local Bill.

A local bill being under consideration on second reading, the point of order was raised that the bill could not be considered as it had never been advertised. The Speaker decided that before the bill passed finally proof of advertisement must be shown, but that he could not rule it off the calendar on second reading. (Journal H. R., 1887, p. 1256.)

Seal of the Court not Necessary to Verify Signature of Justice to Affidavit of Publication of.

The Speaker decided that the signature of the justice, or other person before whom affidavit of the publisher of the notice required in case of local or special bills is made, is not necessary to be verified by the seal of the court. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 490.)

AMENDMENTS.

Previously Refusing to Consider, in Order to Renew Motion so to do.

A motion was made to proceed to the consideration of Senate amendments to the bill, entitled "An act to repeal certain acts in relation to the Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad Company;" whereupon, the Speaker submitted to the House, for decision, whether the motion could be entertained, inasmuch as the House had previously, on the same day, refused to consider said amendments, though other business had intervened. The House decided in the affirmative. (Journal H. R., 1841, p. 977, 978.)

In the Second Degree in Order.

The Speaker decided that a bill originating in the Senate, and passed by the House of Representatives with amendments, which are concurred in by the Senate with amendments, and returned to the House, was still subject to amendments by the House, the proposed amendment being, in his opinion, only in the second degree. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1849, p. 525.)

Not Germane, out of Order.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order to amend a bill by adding to it matter different from the subject matter of the bill. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 340.)

The Speaker decided that the first section being under consideration, it was not in order to strike out all after the enacting clause, and insert a new bill, containing several different sections, which were not germane to the first section of the bill under consideration. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 592.)

A question of order was raised, that, "An act to revise, amend and consolidate existing laws for the assessment and collection of State taxes and county and township rates and levies," being under consideration, a motion to go into committee of the whole for special amendment for the purpose of taxing petroleum, coal and whiskey, articles that, by the present laws, are not now subject to taxation, the amendment, being for the purpose of revenue alone, is not germane to the subject before the House. The Speaker submitted the question to the House, and it was decided in the negative. (Journal H. R., 1869, p. 1093.)

Not Germane to Section under Consideration not in Order.

Mr. Crothers submitted the point of order "that the amendment proposed was not in order as it was not germane to the section under consideration." Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 1016.)

Made in Committee of the Whole, Fall when Leave to sit again is Refused.

The Speaker decided that when the committee of the whole rises, reports progress, and is refused leave to sit again, the amendments made in committee of the whole are not parts of the bill, unless so ordered by a vote of the House. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 463.)

Agreed to, Motion to Strike out Certain Words of, in Order.

The Speaker decided that it was in order to strike from a subject before the House a part of certain words which, in connection with other words, in the form of an amendment, have been already voted upon and agreed to. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1862, p. 344.)

AMENDMENTS—Continued.

Changing Original Purpose of Bill not in Order.

The point of order was raised that an amendment proposed was not in order, as it would change the original purpose of the bill; also that the amendment contained more than one subject. The Speaker submitted the point of order to the House for decision. The House decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1876, p. 196.)

Made by Committee, after Recommitment, First in Order.

The point of order was raised that a bill having been recommitted, when on second reading, to a committee for amendment, and an amendment having been inserted by that committee, the first question should be put on the amendment of the committee. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1876, p. 204.)

Containing the Subject Matter of Another Pending Bill, not in Order.

The Speaker decided that the last ten sections of bill No. 463 are improperly in the bill and should be ruled out, for the reason that the bill was amended by committee by adding ten sections, from nineteenth to the end of the bill, which are the same as corresponding sections of bill No. 229, in that it provides for same objects, et cetera. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 929.)

What in Order.

The Speaker decided that it was in order to make a motion to amend a bill by striking out certain words, notwithstanding a motion to strike out the same word together with others and insert had been voted down. (Journal H. R., 1883, p. 89.)

What Constitutional and Germane.

An amendment having been proposed, the point of order was raised "that the amendment proposing a tax on the rights, privileges and franchises of companies and corporations is not germane to the bill proposing a tax upon petroleum exported out of the State, and is in conflict with section one, article three, of the Constitution. And that the ruling of the Speaker, that an amendment to the original bill imposing a tax upon coal was not germane, applies equally to a proposition to the corporate franchises." The House decided it to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1883, p. 1098.)

Limiting the Operation of Certain Acts Unconstitutional.

An act to amend certain sections of "An act to regulate the sale of liquors," approved March 31, 1856, being under consideration, an amendment was offered providing "that this act shall not apply to cities of the first and second-class," upon which the following point of order was submitted: "The amendment offered is unconstitutional, because it restricts the application of the act, from a territory of a fixed population, which would have to decrease in order to come within the provisions of the act as amended." Decided well taken by the House. (Journal H. R., 1855, p. 437.)

Defeated Cannot be Offered Again on same Reading.

The point of order was raised that "the amendment is out of order, because it had been offered and voted down when the section was under consideration, April 29." Decided well taken by the Speaker. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 903.)

Defeated on Second, Cannot be Offered on Third Reading.

The point of order was raised that an amendment having been voted down on second reading of a bill, it was not in order to offer it on third reading. Decided well taken by the Speaker. (Journal H. R., 1897, p. 921.)

Inserted on Second Reading Cannot be Stricken out on Third Reading.

Mr. J. H. Morrison submitted the point of order, that the House could not strike out on third reading what had been inserted when the bill was upon second reading. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 917.)

Matter Stricken from a Section Cannot be Again Inserted.

Mr. Capp submitted the point of order that this amendment had already been stricken from the section and could not be again inserted. The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Lytle) decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 961.)

Imposing Conditions when an Appropriation should become Available in Order.

An amendment to an appropriation bill, providing conditions when the appropriation should become available, having been offered, the point of order was raised that the proposed amendment was not germane to the subject matter of the bill. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1284.)

Rendering Bills Unconstitutional, out of Order.

The point of order was raised that the amendment was out of order, and would make the bill unconstitutional. Decided well taken by Speaker pro tempore. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 939.)

The point of order was raised that the amendments proposed were out of order, as they would, if adopted, render the bill unconstitutional. Decided well taken by the Speaker. (Journal H. R., 1887, p. 1172.)

AMENDMENTS—Concluded.

Remarks of a Member must be Confined to the Amendment under Consideration.

Mr. Fow submitted the point of order "that the gentleman (Mr. Boyer) was not confining his remarks to the amendment under consideration." The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 428.)

Amendments to Senate Amendments must be Printed before Senate Amendments are Concurred in.

A House bill having been returned from the Senate with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House is requested, said amendments were amended by the House, and upon the question of concurring in the Senate amendments as amended, Mr. Crawford submitted the point of order "that the question could not be considered at this time." The Speaker decided that the amendments made by the House to the bill must first be printed and placed on the files of the House before the final vote on concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate as amended by the House could be taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 1473.)

Manner of Offering and Adopting, where Entire Sections are Stricken out.

The Speaker decided "that a motion to amend by striking out all of a section and inserting a new one was not in order; that where a section is voted down there is nothing left to amend; that if an entire new section is offered as a substitute it is in order, but amendments to the substitute cannot be considered until the substitute is adopted." (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 1012 and Legislative Record, 1893, pp. 1461 and 1463.)

Referring to Committee of Amendment to Resolution, does not Carry Resolution with it.

Mr. Creasy submitted the point of order "that an amendment offered to a resolution having been referred to a committee by the House, the action carried with it the resolution." The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1907, p. 302.)

BILLS.

To Strike out all after Enacting Clause and Insert Different Bill, not in Order.

The Speaker decided that it is not in order to strike from a bill all after the enacting clause, and insert another bill different from that contained in the original bill. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1853, pp. 931, 932.)

Defeated in House, not in Order to Consider Similar one from Senate.

The House decided that a bill having been considered and defeated in the House, it is not in order subsequently to consider a similar bill which had passed the Senate, and been introduced into the House. (Journal H. R., 1865, p. 802.)

The Speaker decided that a bill having been considered and defeated in the House it is not in order to consider a similar bill from the Senate. (Journal H. R., 1887, p. 1434.)

Mr. Quigley submitted the point of order that Senate bill No. 37 is the same in its intent and purpose as House bill No. 54, which had been defeated by the House, and therefore, the bill under consideration could not be further considered. The House decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1694, and Legislative Record, 1891, p. 2749.)

Negatived by House Committee, in Order to Consider Similar one from Senate.

Mr. Patterson raised the point of order that Senate bill No. 187 is not in order, as a similar bill was negatived by the House, viz: House bill No. 569. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken for the reason that the Senate bill (being identical with the House bill), was favorably reported to the House by the same committee which had previously negatived the House bill, and could well be considered a reconsideration by the House committee of its previous action. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1026.)

Mr. Kratz raised the point of order that Senate bill No. 100, which was reported affirmatively by the Committee on Judiciary Local of the House is practically the same as House bill No. 84, which was negatived by the Committee on Judiciary General, and under these circumstances could not be considered by the House. The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Walk), decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1388.)

Reconsidered by Senate, but not Returned, are in Order to Consider.

After a bill incorporating a railroad company had passed the Senate and been received by the House, the Senate reconsidered the vote on its final passage, and notified the House of the same. The bill being on the House private calendar of Senate bills, a question of order was raised, that inasmuch as the Senate had reconsidered its vote on the final passage, and notified the House thereof, the bill was, therefore, not in order. The Speaker submitted the question to the House. The House decided the question of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1870, p. 1173.)

Negatived, a Similar one Cannot be Introduced.

The point of order was raised, whether a bill which was substantially the same as another bill which had been negatived, was out of order. The Speaker submitted the question to the House, and it was decided in the affirmative. (Journal H. R., 1873, p. 624.)

Subject Matter which is part of a Bill Negatived by Committee, can be Considered.

Mr. Fow submitted the point of order "that the bill cannot be further considered, the subject matter being similar to that of another bill which has been negatived by the committee." The Speaker decided that the subject matter of the bill under consideration being only a part of the bill referred to, the point of order was not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 507.)

BILLS—Continued.

Reported Affirmatively by Committee, may be Recommitted and Re-reported with Negative Recommendation.

The point of order was submitted by Mr. Pratt that a committee cannot report a bill with a negative recommendation, which had been reported affirmatively, placed upon the calendar and then referred back to committee for the purpose of a hearing. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken because in this case the committee was empowered to consider the measure in question "de novo." (Journal H. R., 1907, pp. 1763 and 1925.)

Senate, Referred and Reported with Amendments, must be Reprinted before Considered.

The Speaker decided that a bill introduced into the House from the Senate, referred to a committee, and reported from the committee with amendments must be reprinted as amended before it can be considered in the House. (Journal H. R., 1874, p. 218.)

Making Appropriation to Private Institutions, a Two-thirds Vote not Necessary on each Reading.

The point of order was raised that a bill appropriating money to any institution not entirely under the control of the State would require a two-thirds vote to agree to the bill on each of its several readings. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1874, pp. 280, 558.)

Providing for Centennial Buildings, Constitutional.

The point of order was raised that under section eighteen, article three, of the Constitution, a bill to provide for a permanent centennial exposition building is unconstitutional. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1874, p. 556.)

Must be Considered in Committee, before Appearing on Calendar.

The Speaker decided that a bill would be improperly on the calendar, if not having been considered in committee. (Journal H. R., 1875, p. 317.)

Irregularly Considered by Committee, no Cause for Rejection.

The Speaker decided that the House cannot reject a bill because of alleged irregularity in its consideration by a committee. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 236, 241.)

Day Fixed for Consideration of, Cannot be Called up Prior to.

The point of order was raised that the House having fixed a day for the consideration of a bill, that bill cannot be called up before the time fixed upon by the House for its consideration. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. The House sustained the Speaker. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 612, 613, 614.)

Making Appropriation to an Individual, a Two-thirds Vote not Required.

That a bill making an appropriation to an individual will require a two-thirds vote to pass it. The Speaker submitted the question to the House. The House decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 855, 856.)

On Final Passage, to Amend, Must First be Reconsidered.

On the question whether a bill which has passed third reading, and being, as required by the Constitution, upon the final passage, is subject to amendment, the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Schnatterly), decided "that when a bill has passed three several readings, and been agreed to each time, the only thing which remains is to take the vote required by the Constitution, unless postponed, and the vote agreeing to the bill the third time must be reconsidered in order to amend the bill." (Journal H. R., 1878, p. 424.)

Postponed, a Motion Necessary to Call up.

Mr. Wherry raised the point of order, that no motion was necessary to call up a postponed bill. The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Walk), decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1456.)

General Appropriation Bill has Priority over all other Business.

A motion having been made, while bills on third reading were the order, to recommit to committee the general appropriation bill, the point of order was raised, that under the rules of the House said bill and motion were not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, rule six of joint rules giving said bill after being reported priority over all other business. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1221.)

To Regulate Railroad Rates, Constitutional.

The House decided that bill No. 119, to provide for equality in rates of transportation, et cetera, of property carried by railroads in Pennsylvania, prohibiting rebates and drawbacks and contracts therefor, et cetera, is not in conflict with Constitution. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 730.)

To Prevent Grade Crossings in Cities of First and Second-Class, Constitutional.

Mr. Kratz raised the point of order that the bill to prevent railroad crossings at grade in cities of the first and second-class was in conflict with section seven, article third, of the Constitution. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, as the bill was intended to be a general act. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 357.)

BILLS—Concluded.

Pensioning Individuals for Military Service, not Unconstitutional.

On the question whether bill No. 409, granting an annuity and a gratuity to James Osterhout, of Susquehanna county, late a member of Company F., One Hundred and Forty-first regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, is in violation of section eighteen, of article three, of Constitution, the Speaker decided that in absence of a general law upon the subject, it was proper for the Legislature to pass acts pensioning any person who has served in the military service, and in this case the proof of military service is furnished. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 733.)

For the Payment of Expenses Incurred by Members for Extra Services, not Unconstitutional.

On the question whether the twenty-fifth section of bill No. 456, to provide for the ordinary expenses of executive, legislative and judicial departments of the Commonwealth, et cetera, is unconstitutional, the Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, the section not providing compensation, but only making an appropriation for the expenses of the commission, which had been directed to act by prior provisions of law. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 743.)

To Repeal Laws, not Necessary to Recite Laws so Repealed.

The point of order was raised that section two of bill No. 117 is not Constitutional, it being in violation of section six, article three of the Constitution, as follows, viz: "No law shall be revived, amended, or the provisions thereof extended, or conferred by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revived, amended, extended or conferred, shall be re-enacted and published at length." The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, as the second section merely repealed an act, but did not revive, amend, or extend the provisions of any law. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 291.)

Must Recite Acts Proposed to Revise or Amend.

The point of order was raised that bill No. 351 is in violation of section seven, article three, of the Constitution, as it attempts to revise or amend a law without reciting the bill amended. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 1080.)

Regulating Trade, Labor, et cetera, Unconstitutional.

The point of order was raised that the amendment to bill No. 49 is not in order, being in violation of the seventh section of the third article of the Constitution, which says: "No law shall be passed regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing." The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 533.)

Unconstitutional, House Competent to Amend, Making Constitutional.

A point of order was raised that a bill "to increase the revenue and impose a tax on all crude petroleum shipped outside the Commonwealth," was unconstitutional, could not be amended, and should be stricken from the calendar. The Speaker decided that while the bill might be unconstitutional, it was certainly competent for the House to amend it so as to make it constitutional. (Journal H. R., 1883, p. 1085.)

Prescribing New Duties for Public Officers, of a Single County Unconstitutional.

The point of order was raised that the bill was unconstitutional in that it prescribed new duties for public officers of a single county. Speaker pro tempore decided point well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 917; Legislative Record, 1885, p. 1654.)

Exempting Private Property from Taxation, Unconstitutional.

The point of order was raised that this bill is unconstitutional, in that it exempts from taxation real estate, in conflict with article nine, sections one and two of the Constitution. Decided well taken by House. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 918.)

Repealing Local, and Re-enacting General Laws, Constitutional.

The point of order was submitted that the amendment was out of order, because an act to repeal an act could not be amended. The Speaker pro tempore decided the point not well taken, as the bill not only repealed an act, but enacted a new law. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 940.)

Amending Local Laws, Unconstitutional.

The point of order was submitted that this Act is in conflict with article three, section seven of the Constitution, in that it is a supplement, to a local law regulating the opening and repairing of roads and bridges. A local law, the enactment of which is prohibited, cannot be amended. Decided well taken by the House. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 972.)

Defeated and Reconsidered on Second Reading, and Defeated on Third Reading can be again Reconsidered.

A motion was made to reconsider the vote by which House bill No. 280, was defeated on final passage. The point of order was submitted that the bill had been reconsidered once and could not be reconsidered a second time. The Speaker decided the point not well taken, as the reconsideration had been on second reading. (Journal H. R., 1897, p. 2022.)

BILLS IN PLACE.

Call of Counties for, Must Come in Alphabetical Order.

The Speaker was calling the roll of counties, commencing at Philadelphia, for the reading of bills in place. Mr. Capp submitted the point of order, that under the rules the call of counties must come in alphabetical order. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 110.)

CALENDAR.

Of Senate Bills Exclusively, in Order During Last Four Days of Session.

The point of order was raised that without special authority, given by resolution, to the resident clerk, he cannot make a calendar exclusively of Senate bills on second and third reading, during the last four days of the session, while there remains a general calendar of Senate and House bills on third reading undisposed of, notwithstanding the fact that the seventh rule prohibits the transmission of House bills to the Senate during the last four days of the session. The House decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1877, p. 592.)

Should not Contain Unconstitutional Bills.

The point of order was raised that bill No. 90 is in conflict with the Constitution, and should not be on the calendar. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 1493.)

Not an Official Paper.

The point of order was submitted that the bill could not be read at this time, because it does not appear upon the calendar. The Speaker decided the calendar not an official paper, hence point not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 710.)

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

When Quorum Present, Speaker to Order Vote to be Again Taken.

The Speaker decided that when a call of the House is made, and a quorum appears to be present, it is the duty of the Speaker to order the vote to be again taken. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1864, p. 1024.)

CITIES.

Legal Classification of, Necessary to Legislation for.

The point of order was submitted that the present amendment to the amendment proposes to legislate for all the cities and towns of this Commonwealth upon the basis of population, without first being classified as required by the Constitution, in order to make it general, in place of special legislation. Point sustained by the House. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 757.)

CLAIMS, PRIVATE.

Bills Providing for Settlement of Unconstitutional.

The point of order was raised that bill No. 89, which confers the right upon certain persons of presenting a claim against the Commonwealth in the courts of Dauphin county, which right is now possessed by other citizens of the State, confers a special privilege upon said persons, and is, therefore, contrary to section seven, article three of the Constitution. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, as the bill confers simply the right to test the validity of an individual claim against the Commonwealth, which is not provided for by law. The House reversed the decision. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 833.)

COMMITMENT.

To Another Committee, when Motion for, in Order.

On the question whether a motion to recommit a bill to a different committee from the one which reported it is in order, the Speaker decided that the rule permits a motion to be made to recommit a bill, which means that it be returned to the committee which reported it; and a motion to commit to another committee should be made as an independent motion, when original resolutions are in order, or when the bill is properly before the House. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 295.)

COMMITTEES.

Select, Appointed by House, Must Report to House Appointing.

The Speaker decided that a select committee appointed by the House, was required to report to the House by which the committee was appointed. (Journal H. R., 1851, p. 131.)

Select, in Order to Instruct to Report at a Specified Time.

The House decided that it was in order to instruct a select committee not to make a report until a specified time. (Journal H. R., 1850, p. 201.)

COMMITTEES—Concluded.

Select, having been Ordered by Joint Resolution to Report Within Three Days of Final Adjournment, House Cannot Extend the Time.

The Speaker decided that the Senate and House having by joint resolution, determined that the Legislature would adjourn sine die on the eleventh of April, instant, and that all select committees of each House shall report within three days of that time, and this committee having made their report, it is not now in order for this House to extend the power and function of the committee for a longer time, or for any such committee to sit longer than the time specified in the joint resolution above referred to. (Journal H. R., 1862, p. 803.)

Bill Reported by, not Competent for Chair to go Behind the Records Concerning Action in.

The Speaker decided that bill having been regularly reported by a committee, it is not competent for the Chair to go behind the records for the purpose of inquiring how it was acted upon in committee. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1868, pp. 713, 714. See also Journal H. R., 1901, p. 303.)

Power of House to Instruct.

A point of order was raised that the House had no power to instruct a committee to amend a bill changing its character. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1878, p. 314.)

Motion to Recommit Bill to, with Instructions to Change Character of, not in Order.

A point of order was raised that a motion to recommit a bill, with instructions to amend so as to change the object of the bill, was not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1875, pp. 314, 315.)

When Motion to Discharge, in Order.

The Speaker decided that a motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill, after the bill has been ten legislative days in the hands of a committee, cannot be made a privileged motion, but must be made when resolutions are in order. (Journal H. R., 1873, p. 742.)

Standing, Power of, Over Bills.

The point of order was submitted that in line sixteen, of section three, the word "ten" is improperly in the section, for the reason that on second reading the word "ten" was stricken out, and the word "five" inserted by the House. The bill was afterwards recommitted, and the committee improperly restored the word "ten" and so reported it. An amendment inserted in the House is direct instructions to a committee, and should not be disobeyed by such committee. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 543.)

Mr. Burdock submitted the point of order that as when the bill under consideration was recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture, it contained several amendments, inserted on the floor of the House, which were stricken out afterwards by the committee without authority; the House must insist on the amendments being replaced before proceeding with the further consideration of the bill. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 585.)

To Report Bills from, when not the Order of Business, a Suspension of the Rules Necessary.

A motion being made to permit the reporting of a bill after the order "Reports of Committees" had been passed, Mr. Quigley submitted the point of order that to permit such report the rules would have to be suspended. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1712.)

COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE.

Motion to Discharge and Recede, not in Order.

The Speaker submitted to the House for decision: "Is the motion to discharge the committee of conference and recede from its non-concurrence in order?" The House decided in the negative. (Journal H. R., 1840, p. 36C.)

Minority of, Cannot Report Reasons for Dissent.

The Speaker decided that it is not in order for the minority of a committee of conference to make a report, giving the reasons for dissent from the report of a majority. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1850, pp. 1216, 1218.)

Motion to Appoint, Cannot Include Instructions not to Agree to Matters in Dispute.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order to couple with a motion to appoint a committee of conference, instructions for the said committee not to agree to certain matters in dispute. (Journal H. R., 1871, p. 1294.)

Report of, Must be Printed Before Action.

The Speaker decided that a report of a committee of conference must be printed before action can be taken by the House. (Journal H. R., 1874, p. 436.)

COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE—Concluded.

Cannot be Appointed until Senate has been Notified of the Non-Concurrence of the House in Senate Amendments.

Mr. Gillan submitted the point of order, that a committee of conference could not be appointed until after the Senate had been notified that the House had not concurred in the Senate amendments. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 876.)

Not in Order for a Standing Committee to Act as a Committee of Conference.

The conference committee having failed to agree and the House committee having been discharged, a motion was made that the bill be referred for any further conference to the Committee on Labor and Industry. Mr. McClain submitted the point of order that the motion was out of order, as it changed the joint rule, and the rule must first be suspended. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1903, p. 2337.)

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

Report of, Embracing Subjects not Appertaining to Bill, not in Order.

The Speaker decided that a report of the committee of the whole embracing subjects not appertaining to the original bill, is not in order. (Journal H. R., 1850, p. 1120.)

Reconsideration of Vote Refusing Leave to Sit Again not in Order.

The House having refused the committee of the whole House leave to sit again upon a bill, the bill being again before the House, pending the question "Will the House agree to the first section?" a motion was made to reconsider the vote refusing the committee of the whole leave to sit again. The Speaker ruled the motion out of order. (Journal H. R., 1855, p. 1015.)

Cannot Sit at Time Fixed for Another Special Order.

The Speaker decided that a bill pending in committee of the whole, having been made the special order of the day for this day, and having been proceeded with during the morning session, the committee having risen and leave to sit again—granted, a majority of the House cannot give the committee leave to sit at a time which the House has fixed for the consideration of another special order subsequently made by a two-thirds vote. (Journal H. R., 1873, p. 715.)

Motion to go into, for Special Amendment, can be Amended.

That when a motion is made that the House go into committee of the whole for special amendment, the amendment is indicated, and is not subject to amendment. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 984.)

Motion to go into, for Special Amendment, can be Amended to Include Amendments to other Parts of the Bill.

That when a motion is made to go into committee of the whole for special amendment, amendments can be offered to the amendment, but other amendments cannot be offered to the body of the bill. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 984.)

Amendments made in, Fall when Committee Reports Progress and Leave to Sit Again is Refused.

Amendments made in committee of the whole are not parts of bills when the committee reports progress, and leave to sit again is not granted by the House. (Journal H. R., 1820-21, p. 913.)

CONSTITUTION.

Amendments to, Proposed by one Legislature, not Subject to Amendment by Succeeding.

The Speaker decided that the proposed amendments to the Constitution agreed to by one Legislature, were not subject to amendment in the Legislature next afterwards chosen. (Journal H. R., 1857, p. 891.)

Proposing Amendments to.

Joint resolution of the Senate proposing amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, being before the House, a question of order was raised, as follows, viz: The second part, or section nine, of the amendment now under consideration, having been before this House on the 2d day of March, and on the call of the yeas and nays, a majority of the members elected not having agreed to the same, it was negatived, it is in order for this House again to consider and again to determine the question, whether it will agree to or negative the same section or part of said amendment. The Speaker decided that it was in order, and assigned for the decision the following reasons, viz: "The manner of agreeing to or negativing amendments to the Constitution is prescribed by that instrument itself. It directs that any proposed amendment or amendments, to be operative, shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House. When the proposed amendments to the Constitution were before this House, on the 2d of March, the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Smith), being temporarily in the chair, directed that the yeas and nays should be called, not only on the second amendment, but upon its separate parts severally. This the House had no power to do under the Constitution. It could take no constitutional action, only in obedience to the specific requirements of that instrument. The action of the House in thus voting separately on two parts of one amendment, being without authority, was void and of no effect and could not affect the right of this House to do that which was its duty to do—to vote on the amendments. The amendment now before this House has not been negatived. The vote now demanded of this House, is on the whole amendment, and not on a part of it, and is not the same proposition as that which was negatived on the second day of March by this House. It is, therefore, in order for the House to proceed to consider and vote upon the proposed amendment now before the House." The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1864, p. 371.)

CONSTITUTION—Concluded.

CONTEMPT OF THE HOUSE.

Members Under Arrest for, Nothing in Order Until Purged.

The Speaker decided that when a member of the House was under arrest for contempt, nothing was in order until the contempt was purged, or the matter otherwise disposed of by the House. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1876, p. 177.)

CONTESTED ELECTION.

What Regarded as a Certificate of Election by the House, in Case of.

On a resolution which recited that "it appears from the certified copy of the record of the court of common pleas, of Westmoreland county, duly transmitted to this House in accordance with the act of 1874, that W. N. Porter and A. D. Hunter were duly elected members of the House of Representatives instead of Eli Waugaman and W. R. Barnhart, who, on the face of the returns, appeared to be elected, and resolved that the said W. N. Porter and A. D. Hunter be sworn in as members of the House in conformity with the decision of the court, and that their names be placed on the roll of members." During the debate on the resolution a number of points of order were submitted to the effect that the resolution could not at that time be considered, as the court record was not a certificate of election, et cetera. The Speaker decided the points of order not well taken, for the reason that the record presented is regarded as a certificate of election under the act of 1874, and under the decision of the court the contestants, in whose favor the decision has been made, are prima facie entitled to their seats. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 666, and Legislative Record, 1893, p. 855.)

The Sitting Member is Entitled to Vote During Contest.

A resolution having been offered that neither the contestant or respondent in the contested election case of Higby vs. Andrews be entitled to vote until a decision is reached by the House as to which is the member elected and qualified, to the end that legislation may not be imperiled thereby. Mr. Lytle submitted the point of order "that the resolution was res judicata and would invalidate the whole proceedings of the organization of the House." The Speaker decided the point of order well taken for the reason that the right of a member to be called and cast a vote was a Constitutional right, which he could not be deprived of except for actions in violation of the Constitution or laws of this Commonwealth. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 397.)

EXPULSION OF A MEMBER.

In Order to Reconsider Vote Given for.

The Speaker submitted to the House for decision: Whether a motion to reconsider the vote given for the expulsion of a member by the Constitutional majority, and his seat declared vacant, is in order? The House decided in the affirmative. (Journal H. R., 1840, pp. 859-61.)

Two-Thirds of those Voting Sufficient.

The Speaker submitted to the House the following question, viz: When the vote cast on the expulsion of a member is 118 in the affirmative and 46 in the negative, is such vote the two-thirds vote that is required by the Constitution? The House decided affirmatively. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 1048-50.)

EXTRA COMPENSATION.

Not Allowable to Members for Extra Services.

It was decided that that portion of a section of Senate Bill No. 37, providing for the compensation of members who may be appointed members of the Board to receive, open and publish returns of election of State Treasurer and Auditor-General, is in conflict with the Constitution. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 722.)

JUDGES.

Bills Regulating Duties of, Constitutional.

Mr. Penrose submitted the following point of order: "House bill No. 7, entitled 'An act to permit the judges of the several courts of common pleas in all counties in which there are two or more such courts, at the request of any of the other courts of common pleas in the same county, to perform judicial duties in the other courts,' is unconstitutional, because contrary to article five, section six, of the Constitution, which says: In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such a manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any such suit shall be assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law. In Allegheny each court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings at law and in equity, commencing therein, subject to change of venue as may be provided by law." Decided not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 111.)

LAYING ON THE TABLE.

Of Motion to Refer does not Carry Bill with it.

The Speaker decided that the laying on the table of the motion to refer the amendments and the bill to committee, does not carry the bill or amendment with it. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1385.)

LYING ON THE TABLE.

To Consider Resolution, Motion must be made to take it from the Table.

Mr. Crawford submitted the point of order "that inasmuch as the resolution was placed on the table by a vote of the House, that a motion to now proceed to its consideration is not in order for the reason that a motion must first be made to take it from the table." Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 977.)

MEMBERS.

Of Previous Session not to be Called by Name by Committee in Report.

The Speaker decided that it is not in order for a committee, in a report, when referring to a report made at a previous session of the Legislature by a member of this House, to call said member by name. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1843, p. 594.)

Can Serve on Commission to Count Vote for State Officers.

On the question whether Senate bill (No. 37) to provide for the receiving, opening and publishing of the returns of the election of the State Treasurer and Auditor-General, is in conflict with the Constitution, the Speaker decided that this bill does not create a civil office, and members elected upon the commission created thereby will only perform duties within their constitutional prerogatives as members of the General Assembly, and therefore the point of order is not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 859.)

Can Vote on Bills in which they are Personally Interested, if that Fact is not Disclosed.

That under section thirty-three, article three, of the Constitution, no member should vote on Senate bill 319, as they are interested in its passage, inasmuch as it is the only way they can secure extra pay, and have no right to vote. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, as under section thirty-three the fact of interest has not been disclosed. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 1180.)

NON-CONCURRENCE.

A Motion to Recede from, after Notice given to Senate, not in Order.

After information has been given to the Senate, that the House insists upon its non-concurrence in an amendment by the Senate, a motion to recede from the non-concurrence is not in order. (Journal H. R., 1827-8, p. 781.) (The same principle is decided in Journal 1816-17, p. 708.)

OBJECTIONS.

When Too Late to Make.

The Chair decided that after an agreement to proceed with certain orders had been partially carried out, it was too late to make objections. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1868, pp. 906, 907.)

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

An Amendment Fixing a Special Order to Resolution Providing General, not Germane.

The Committee on Rules having offered a resolution fixing the order of business for each day, and an amendment being offered making a certain bill a special order at fixed hours on Monday and Tuesday, the point of order was submitted that the amendment was not germane to the original resolution. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 2304.)

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

Suspension of, at Morning Session, Works Suspension of the Succeeding Session of the Day if Fixed Prior.

The House decided that a motion to suspend the orders of the day, when acted upon in the morning of the day, would control the proceedings of the succeeding sessions of the day, if such sessions were fixed prior thereto. (Journal H. R., 1859, p. 346.)

Special, Takes Precedence until Disposed of.

The Speaker decided that the House having, by a vote of two-thirds, determined that it would, at a certain specified hour, upon a particular day, proceed to the consideration of a certain question, and the time having arrived, the House must proceed to its consideration, and any other business before the House stands postponed until the question is disposed of by the House, either by adoption, rejection or postponement. (Journal H. R., 1861, p. 131.)

Motion to Suspend, Having been Negatived, Cannot be Reconsidered.

The Speaker decided that the House having refused to suspend the orders of the day generally, and the orders having therefrom been proceeded with, a motion to reconsider the vote suspending the orders, was not in order. (Journal H. R., 1869, p. 1178.)

Two-Thirds Vote Necessary to Consider, out of Order, "Unfinished Resolution."

The Speaker decided that it would require a majority of two-thirds to adopt a resolution to proceed with the consideration of a resolution that could only be reached when division No. 6, of rule No. 8, is in order. (Journal H. R., 1871, p. 952.)

ORDERS OF THE DAY—Concluded.

Bill under Consideration at Time of Last Adjournment, no Quorum being Present not the First Order at the next Session.

The point of order was submitted, that when the House adjourned Friday last it had under consideration House bill No. 832 (Senate No. 185), and there being no quorum present, that said bill should be the first order of business for this evening. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, as he had exhausted all available means of procuring a quorum and was, therefore, compelled to adjourn the House, and that said bill would come up in its order with Senate bills on second reading. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 2295.)

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

Call for, in Order During Pendency of an Appeal.

The Speaker decided that a call for the previous question is in order during the pendency of an appeal from the decision of the Speaker. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1840, pp. 946-8.)

Main Question not Precluded by Motion to Postpone.

The Speaker decided that the previous question being called, pending a motion to postpone indefinitely, the main question would be on the motion to postpone indefinitely. The House reversed the decision. (Journal H. R., 1857, p. 493.)

A motion having been made to postpone consideration of the Governor's veto message for the present, and the previous question being called, Mr. Cessna submitted the point of order "that the call for the previous question cut off all motions, and that the main question to be considered is the communication from the Governor." The Speaker decided the point well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 532.)

Call for, While Member is Addressing the House, in Order.

The Speaker decided that the previous question could be called while a member was addressing the House. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 347.)

The Speaker decided that a call for the previous question could be made while a member was occupying the floor. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 539.)

Does not Cut off Motion for Commitment.

The Speaker decided that the previous question did not cut off a motion for commitment. An appeal was taken, which was laid on the table. (Journal H. R., 1859, p. 214.)

The Speaker decided a motion to commit was not cut off by the operation of the previous question. (Journal H. R., 1871, p. 143.)

When Exhausted.

The point of order was raised that the previous question having been ordered, no further amendments are in order to the bill, and the previous question is not exhausted until the bill is gone through with. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, for the following reasons, viz: The previous question having been called on an amendment to the third section of the bill, and the main question ordered to be put, the previous question exhausted itself on the amendment and sections, and amendments to subsequent sections are in order. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 1414.)

When Moved on Third Reading of a Bill, the Final Passage of Same is a Part of the Main Question.

The bill being on third reading and a motion made to go into Committee of the Whole for special amendment, the previous question was moved. Upon the bill being agreed to on third reading, the point of order was submitted that the previous question had been exhausted on agreeing to the bill on third reading. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, and that the main question was on agreeing to the bill on third reading and final passage. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 2013.)

Cuts off Motion to go into Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Cressy raised the point of order that as a motion had been made to go into committee of the whole for special amendment that said motion took precedence over a motion for the previous question which had been previously offered. Decided not well taken. (Legislative Record, 1901, p. 581.)

PRIVILEGED QUESTION.

Resolution Calling for Information from the Executive or Departments does not become a Privileged Question after one Day but can only be Considered when Resolutions are in Order.

Mr. Cressy raised the point of order that rule 27 says "every motion to alter the rules of the House or for information from the executive or departments, shall lie on the table one day," and this is under the head of privileged questions, and therefore asked that as this is a resolution asking for information that it be brought up at this time. The Speaker decided that the House cannot proceed to the consideration of this resolution, as resolutions are not in order today. An appeal was taken, and the decision of the Speaker sustained. (Journal H. R., 1901, p. 1373, also Legislative Record, 1901, p. 1773.)

PROCEEDINGS.

To Expunge, Unanimous Consent Necessary.

The proceedings of the House cannot be expunged from the Journal, under the Constitution and uniform practice of the House, without the unanimous consent of the members present. (Journal H. R., 1832-3, p. 728.)

QUESTIONS.

When Not Divisible.

The Speaker decided that a question, although embracing different propositions, could not be divided after these propositions had been amended and acted upon separately and independently, and the question thus blending them together, was presented for the final action of the House. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1853, pp. 655, 656, 657.)

On a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a bill and place the bill on the calendar, and a division of the question being asked for, Mr. Burdick submitted the point of order that the question was not divisible, for the reason that if the first proposition was defeated, the remaining proposition would be incomplete. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 699.)

Division of, if Divisible, Call for in Order Before or After Main Question is Ordered.

The point of order was raised that a call for a division of the question is not in order, if not made before the previous question was moved by the proper number of members, as required by rule. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, as any member may call for a division of a question before or after the main question is ordered, which shall be divided, if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that one being taken away a substantial proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 962.)

RECESS.

Motion to Take, not Debatable, when Another Motion is Pending.

On motion that when the House adjourns it be to take a recess until 9 o'clock this evening, the point of order was submitted that the motion was not debatable because made when another question was pending. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 928.)

RECOMMIT BILL.

Motion to, not in Order when Reports from Committees are being Made.

Reports of committees being in order, the Speaker decided that it would require a suspension of the orders to make a motion to recommit a bill. (Journal H. R., 1870, p. 343.)

Motion to, not in Order until Bill has been Read the First Time.

Mr. Bliss submitted the point of order that under settled principles of parliamentary law a bill cannot be committed until it has been read before the House the first time. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1901, p. 1976, also Legislative Record, 1901, p. 2862.)

Motion to, not in Order when bill is not on File.

Mr. Cressy submitted the point of order that the bill is not on file, and therefore under the rules it cannot be recommitted. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1901, p. 669; see also Legislative Record, 1901, p. 855.)

Not in Order to, on Postponed Calendar.

A bill being on the postponed calendar and a motion to recommit to committee having been made, Mr. Coray raised the point of order that the motion was not in order as the bill was not before the House. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1901, p. 843.)

RECONSIDERATION.

Of a Bill, Adoption of a Resolution to Proceed to, at Certain Time in Order.

The Speaker decided that the House having, on yesterday, adopted a resolution by a vote of two-thirds, that it would proceed to the reconsideration of a certain bill when it met the next morning, the bill is therefore in order. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1840, pp. 946-50.)

Of Vote Negating Bill Returned by Governor, in Order.

The Speaker decided that a vote, negating a bill returned by the Governor with his objections, could be reconsidered. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1860, p. 638.)

Of Vote on Indefinite Postponement of Motion to Reconsider, not in Order.

The Speaker decided that a motion to reconsider the vote on indefinitely postponing a motion to reconsider the vote on the final passage of a bill, was not in order. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1862, p. 778.)

Bill Negated on Final Passage, only those Voting in the Negative Competent to Move for.

The point of order was raised that when a bill fails on its final passage for want of a constitutional majority, does it require those who voted for the bill, who may be of a majority of the votes cast, or those who voted against the bill, although of a minority of the votes cast, to move to reconsider? The Speaker ruled that it would require the motion to reconsider to be made by those voting against the passage of the bill. (Journal H. R., 1874, p. 725.)

Of Bills Twice Negated, a Motion for, not Again in Order.

The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Long), decided that a bill having been negated, then reconsidered, and again negated, a motion to again reconsider is out of order. (Journal H. R., 1878, p. 611.)

Mr. Burdick submitted the point of order that the bill having been once defeated, reconsidered and again defeated could not be reconsidered the second time. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1033.)

RECONSIDERATION—Concluded.

Motion for, Takes Precedence of Other Business Except Motion to Adjourn.

The point of order was raised that a motion cannot be entertained when a bill is pending before the House. The Speaker decided the point of order to be not well taken, as a motion to reconsider can be made, entered upon the journal and take precedence of all other business, except a motion to adjourn. (Journal H. R., 1881, p. 984.)

Of Bill Immediately after its Defeat, Motion for, not in Order.

A bill having been defeated on final passage, a motion was immediately made to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated. Mr. Brooks submitted the point of order that as no business had been done since the consideration of this bill, the motion is not in order. The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Baker) decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1097.)

Of Amendments to Bill, When Motion for, in Order.

The point of order was made that the motion to reconsider vote by which an amendment was inserted on second reading was out of order, because the said bill was not before the House, and the motion could not be entertained until the regular order on second reading was reached and the bill reconsidered. Decided well taken. (Journal H. R., 1885, p. 795.)

Of House Bill on Day Sent to the Senate, in Order.

Mr. Skinner submitted the point of order that House bill No. 297 having passed the House finally, and being now in the possession of the Senate, no further action can be taken upon the pending motion to reconsider until the bill itself has been returned from the Senate to the House. The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Burdick) decided the point of order not well taken, that a motion to reconsider if made on the day the bill passes, or within the proper time, though the bill had gone to the Senate, is in order. (Journal H. R., 1891, pp. 1064, 1065.)

Of Senate Bill Returned to Senate and House Amendments Concurred in, not in Order.

A motion having been made to reconsider the vote by which Senate bill No. 72 had passed the House after the bill had been returned to the Senate for concurrence in the House amendments, Mr. McCullough submitted the point of order that the bill could not be reconsidered at this time. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. Mr. Ritter then submitted the point of order that as the Senate has concurred in the House amendments, the discussion was not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1308.)

Motion for, of Vote Recommittin Bill a Privileged Question.

The point of order was raised that this being third reading day a motion to reconsider a motion to recommit was not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, for the reason that rule 24 of the House made the motion to reconsider a privileged question and that such motion could be made at any time a member competent to make such motion obtained the floor and was recognized by the Chair. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 870.)

Motion to Indefinitely Postpone Motion for, in Order.

A motion having been made to indefinitely postpone the motion to reconsider, the point of order was submitted that a motion to indefinitely postpone a motion to reconsider was not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 2579.)

Those Voting with the Minority Competent to move for, when Yeas and Nays are not Called.

The point of order was submitted that when section twenty-nine of House bill No. 140 was under consideration, an amendment was offered allowing fishing with nets and baskets. The amendment was adopted. Immediately after its adoption a motion was made for the reconsideration of the vote—the motion being made by the gentleman from Clearfield who voted with the minority, and therefore not entitled to the privilege. The proceedings being irregular and contrary to the rule, the motion and action of the House relative thereto should be stricken from the Journal, and the amendment should remain as part of the section. The Chair decided the point of order not well taken, as there was no record of the vote. (Journal H. R., 1897, p. 1059.)

Of Vote Defeating Bill, May Be Made within Five Days of Actual Session.

The point of order was raised whether five legislative days had not intervened since the bill was defeated. The Speaker ruled that the bill was defeated on the seventeenth instant, last Monday. The House was in session Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week. This will be the fourth day in which the House is in session. The point of order is not sustained. (Journal H. R., 1913, p. 6045, and Legislative Journal, 1913, p. 3072.)

ROLL OF MEMBERS.

Call of, Under Call for Previous Question in Order.

The Speaker decided that calling of the roll, under the call for the previous question, is in order. (Journal H. R., 1875, p. 343.)

Of Last House, Continue in Force until Otherwise Ordered.

A resolution having been introduced, adopting the rules of the last House as the rules for the government of the House during the present session, Mr. Waddell submitted the following question of order, viz: "Is it in order for the House to pass a resolution making the rules of the last session apply to this session, while there exists a rule of the last House declaring that these rules shall remain in force until otherwise ordered?" The Speaker submitted the question to the House for decision. The House decided it not in order to pass the resolution. (Journal H. R., 1867, pp. 167, 191.)

RULES—Concluded.

Of Last House do not Continue in Force.

On motion to proceed to the election of a chief clerk, Mr. Fow submitted the point of order that the nomination and election of an officer on the same day was a transgression of the rules of the House. The Speaker decided the point of order was not well taken, as the House was not yet organized, and there were no rules in force. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 10.)

Of Last House, Motion that they be Adopted, not in Order.

The Speaker decided that a resolution providing that the rules of the last House of Representatives be adopted as the rules of the House for the present session was not in order. (Journal H. R., 1868, p. 30.)

Resolution Dispensing with, Requires a Two-thirds Vote.

The Speaker decided it would require a two-thirds vote of the House to adopt any resolution which had for its object the dispensing, in any way, with the rule of the House which provides that when the House adjourns on Friday it will adjourn to meet on Monday evening next at half past seven o'clock. (Journal H. R., 1869, p. 714.)

Of Previous House, Requires Two-thirds Vote to Alter.

The Speaker decided that it required a two-thirds vote to alter or change a rule governing previous sessions of the House of Representatives, said rules not having been adopted by this session of the House of Representatives. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R. 1873, P. 176.)

Two-thirds Vote Necessary to Change.

A point of order was raised that a resolution involving a change of the rules of the House would require a two-thirds vote of the House to adopt it. The Speaker submitted the point of order to the House. The House decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1875, p. 234.)

Special Session which Changes, Requires a Two-thirds Vote.

The Speaker decided that it will require a two-thirds vote to adopt a resolution to hold special session, when it changes the rule of the House in relation to adjournment on Friday during the months of January, February and March. (Journal H. R., 1876, pp. 622, 623.)

Suspension of, for Previous Resolution having been Refused, an Order for Resolution Calling for a Duty of the Legislature Imposed by Law.

Mr. Wherry raised the point of order, that the House having refused to suspend the rules for the purpose of considering a previous resolution, the resolution was not in order. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken for the reason that the resolution called for a duty imposed upon the Legislature by a special act of Assembly. (Journal H. R., 1889, p. 1192.)

A Motion Changing Time of Meeting is a Change of, and Requires Unanimous Consent to Consider.

Mr. Brooks raised the point of order, that the motion changing the time of meeting on Monday was a change of rules and could not be considered unless unanimous consent be given. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1889, P. 1294.)

To Amend Report of Committee on, Requires a Two-thirds Vote.

Mr. Coray submitted the point of order, that having offered an amendment to the report of the Committee on Rules, the amendment passes by the same vote the original resolution required. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, for it would require a two-thirds vote to adopt such amendment, as it changed the rules of the House, which require that all bills upon calendar shall be considered in their order upon such calendar and at the time fixed by the rules for such consideration. (Journal H. R., 1891, P. 1284.)

Motion to Change, Having Failed, not again in Order Same Day to Offer Motion Changing.

Mr. Fow submitted the point of order, that the motion would change the rules of the House, and that the House had refused once before today to change the rules and it could not be done. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1386.)

RULES, JOINT.

Only a Majority Vote Necessary to Concur in Senate Amendments to House Resolution Changing.

Mr. Merrick submitted the point of order that as the resolution changed the joint rules, it required a two-thirds vote to concur in the Senate amendments. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, P. 2131.)

SENATORS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Not Competent for One House to Instruct.

A point of order was raised that it is not competent for one House of the General Assembly to instruct Senators of the United States. The Speaker decided the point of order to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1875, P. 113.)

SESSION.

Special, Two-thirds Vote Necessary to Fix Special Order for, on a Division of the Question.

A resolution was offered, proposing to hold an afternoon session for the purpose of considering particular bills. A division of the question was called for, the first division to embrace the holding of an afternoon session, which was agreed to. On the question of the adoption of the second division of the resolution, which was "for the purpose of considering Senate bill No. 18, entitled 'An act to incorporate the Stroudsburg Bank,' and the bills of similar import," the Speaker decided that it would require a vote of two-thirds. An appeal was taken, and the decision of the Speaker was sustained. (Journal H. R., 1856, p. 626.)

Special, Resolution Fixing, for Special Purpose, Two-Thirds Vote not Necessary for, when not Divided.

A resolution was offered fixing a special session for the consideration of a particular bill. A question of order was raised, that it required a two-thirds vote to pass the resolution. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken, inasmuch as the vote was taken upon the resolution in its entirety. (Journal H. R., 1870, p. 241.)

Special, Two-Thirds Vote not Necessary to Fix, if not in Conflict with Rule.

The point of order was raised, that rule 59 requires that the House shall adjourn at or before 10 o'clock P. M. on Monday, and a resolution fixing a special session for the same day, after that hour, requires a two-thirds vote. The Speaker (Mr. Hahn), in the Chair, decided the point of order not well taken. On an appeal the House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1877, pp. 552-563.)

Special, Two-Thirds Vote Necessary to Suspend Regular Orders During.

The House having refused to suspend the orders of the day generally during the morning session of the House, and a session having been subsequently created, for a special purpose, upon the afternoon of the same day, the House decided that a two-thirds vote would suspend the orders during the afternoon session. (Journal H. R., 1859, p. 701.)

Special, for a Special Purpose, no other Business can be Considered at.

Mr. W. F. Stewart submitted the point of order that this being a special session for a special purpose, no other business could be considered. The Speaker decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R., 1891, p. 1443.)

Special, for Special Purpose, Unanimous Consent Requisite to Consider Other Business.

That this session being a special one for a special purpose, unanimous consent is requisite to take up any other business than the special order. (Journal H. R., 1879, p. 788.)

Continued after Midnight, Competent to Proceed with Business Pending Before the House.

The session of the House having continued after twelve o'clock midnight, the Speaker decided that it was in order to proceed with the business before the House. An appeal was taken. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1864, p. 1025.)

The hour of midnight having arrived, the Speaker decided that it was in order to proceed with the business then under consideration. (Journal H. R., 1872, pp. 622, 623.)

SPEAKER.

Bills under Control of.

The Speaker decided that all bills were under his control while in the possession of the House. An appeal was taken, which was laid on the table. (Journal H. R., 1859, pp. 292, 293, 294.)

SPECIAL ORDER.

Hour for, Having Arrived, must Proceed with.

The Speaker decided that the House having agreed to "proceed to the final vote upon a resolution at ten o'clock this evening," and that hour having arrived, nothing was in order but the vote on the final passage of the resolution. (Journal H. R., 1869, p. 767.)

Motion to Postpone, until Bill under Consideration Gone Through with in Order.

The point of order was submitted that the motion to postpone the consideration of a special order fixed at nine o'clock until the bill under consideration be disposed of, was out of order. The Speaker decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1895, p. 1681.)

House by Majority Vote on Recommendation of Committee on Rules Can Fix, for one Bill in Advance of Others.

Mr. Bedford submitted the point of order that the Committee on Rules had not the power to take out any single bill and make it a special order in advance of other bills. The Speaker read for the information of the gentleman, Rule 69, and decided the point of order not well taken. (Legislative Record, 1901, p. 2544.)

VETO MESSAGE.

Motion to Postpone Consideration of, for the Present, in Order.

A motion having been made to postpone consideration of the veto message for the present, Mr. Foy submitted the point of order "that under the provisions of the Constitution the House could not postpone the consideration of the communication." The Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Lytle) decided the point of order not well taken. (Journal H. R., 1893, p. 530.) (See also similar decision, same Journal, p. 532.)

VOTE.

Members Calling for Yeas and Nays Must Vote.

The Speaker decided that members calling for the yeas and nays were required to vote. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1857, p. 714.)

The House Ordering Members to, Abrogated Rule Relative to.

The Speaker decided that the House having ordered members to vote, the decision of the House abrogated, in this particular instance, the rule prohibiting members from voting who were in their seats when their names were called, and refused to vote. The House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 715.)

Of Member Without the Bar, can be Received by Consent of Two-Thirds.

Mr. McDonough, after the announcement of the vote (he not being within the bar of the House when the vote was taken), asked leave to vote. The Chair decided that, under the fifty-fourth rule of the House, it will require two-thirds to permit the gentleman to vote, and that, if two-thirds vote in the affirmative, he can have the privilege, if asked for during the same day's session. (Journal H. R., 1860, p. 756.)

Member Cannot Vote after Speaker.

The Speaker decided that it was not in order for a member to vote after the Speaker's name had been called. (Journal H. R., 1864, p. 730.)

Of a Majority of all the Members not Necessary to Pass Concurrent Resolution Entailing Expense to the State.

The Speaker decided that a concurrent resolution to appoint a commission, which read: "The expenses of said commission shall be paid upon warrants drawn by the chairman upon the State Treasurer and approved by the Auditor-General, and each of said commissioners shall be allowed the sum of ten dollars per day, said expense and compensation to be paid out of such moneys as may by law be hereafter appropriated for such purposes," did not require one hundred and one votes (a majority of all the members of the House) to pass, as the resolution did not appropriate money. On an appeal, the House sustained the decision. (Journal H. R., 1878, p. 1394.)

VOTERS.

Qualifications of, an Amendment to a Bill Relating to, not in Order.

A motion was made to amend so as to insert the word "white" before the word "citizen." A question of order was raised, "that inasmuch as the Constitution defines the qualifications of voters, therefore the amendment was not in order." The point of order was submitted to the House, and it was decided to be well taken. (Journal H. R., 1868, p. 467.)

VOTING.

House Competent to Excuse Member from.

The Speaker decided that it was at all times competent for the House to excuse a member from voting. (Journal H. R., 1858, p. 813.)

WITNESSES.

Subpoenaed Before Contested Election Cases Must be Paid.

The speaker decided that witnesses, regularly subpoenaed before a contested election committee, must be paid according to law. (Journal H. R., 1869, p. 597.)

LEGISLATIVE PRACTICE AND PROCEEDINGS IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

TIME OF MEETING.

The General Assembly meets biennially on the first Tuesday of January, at 12 o'clock M., the next meeting being on January 4, 1921.

OFFICERS OF THE PRECEDING SESSION WHO ARE AUTHORIZED TO BE PRESENT AT THE ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The Lieutenant-Governor who by the Constitution is made President of the Senate presides at the opening of the Senate.

By the Act of July 1, 1919, P. L. 717, all the officers and employes of the Senate and House of Representatives shall return as such to the next regular biennial session of the Legislature following that for which they were elected or appointed.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

THE SENATE.

At twelve o'clock M., on the day fixed for the meeting of the General Assembly, the twenty-five Senators whose term of office has not expired and the twenty-five Senators elect, together with the returning officers of the Senate, assemble in the Senate Chamber and are called to order by the President of the Senate (the Lieutenant-Governor) in the following form: "This being the day fixed by the Constitution for the meeting of the General Assembly, and there appearing to be present a sufficient number of the members of the Senate, together with a number of gentlemen elected to the Senate at the last general election to constitute a quorum, the Senate will come to order."

The custom is to call upon the former chaplain or any minister of the Gospel who may be present to open the proceedings with prayer, after which the Secretary of the Commonwealth, being introduced by the Sergeant-at-Arms, presents to the Senate the returns of the election for Senators held at the previous November election. A motion is then made by a member of the Senate that the clerk proceed to open and read the returns as presented, and upon said motion being agreed to the clerk performs said duty. Upon the completion of the reading of said returns the President orders the Clerk to call over the roll of Senators by districts, each Senator when his name is called, signifying his presence by answering "present," after which the newly elected Senators present themselves in front of the clerk's desk, when the requisite oath of office is administered to them by a judge of the Supreme Court, or a judge of the Court of Common Pleas learned in the law, and is signed by the Senators in a book prepared for the purpose. It is customary for those who swear by the Bible to be sworn first; then those who swear by the uplifted hand; and lastly those who affirm.

The next proceeding is the election of a President pro tempore, a motion being made by one of the Senators that the Senate do now proceed to such election and that the clerks act as tellers; this being agreed to, the President announces that nominations for said office are in order. After the nominations have been made the clerks proceed with the election by calling the roll of the Senate, and the Senators voting for their choice by a viva voce vote. The President announces the result of the vote and declares who has been elected; he then appoints a committee of two Senators (usually the defeated candidate, and the Senator who nominated the successful candidate) to escort the President pro tempore to the chair. The next order of business is the election of the Chief Clerk and other officers, after which the Senate is ready to proceed with any business that may be presented.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The members elected and returned together with the returning officers of the House of Representatives, meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives on the day fixed for the meeting of the Legislature, and at eleven o'clock A. M. of that day one of the oldest members, that is, one who has been a member for previous years and returned elected to the present session, announces from the Speaker's stand, "that the members of the House of Representatives will meet this day at twelve o'clock M., for the purpose of organization." When that time arrives, the clerk rises and says: "This being the day appointed by the Constitution for the meeting of the General Assembly, and there being present a sufficient number of gentlemen elected members to constitute a quorum, the House will come to order."

As soon as this announcement is made by the Clerk, and order restored, the Secretary of the Commonwealth presents himself at the bar of the House. The Sergeant-at-Arms immediately arises and announces, "The Secretary of the Commonwealth." The Clerk then announces to the House, "The Secretary of the Commonwealth." When this is done, the Secretary of the Commonwealth advances a few feet within the bar of the House, and says: "Mr. Clerk, I have the honor to present the returns of the late election of members of the House of Representatives for the several cities and counties of this Commonwealth, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and laws relating to the election of this Commonwealth."

As soon as the Secretary of the Commonwealth retires, some member arises in his place, and moves "that the returns of the election be opened and read." This motion being regularly stated by the Clerk, and agreed to by the House, the Clerk proceeds first, with the returns from the city of Philadelphia, and then with those of the several counties in the Commonwealth, in alphabetical order.

When the returns are all read, and the names of the members returned as such announced, the Clerk then calls over the roll of members alphabetically, each member, when his name is called, signifying his presence by answering "present." The oath of office is then administered by a judge of the Supreme Court or of a Court of Common Pleas learned in the law, and is signed in a book prepared for the purpose. It is usual for those who swear by the Bible to be sworn first; then those who swear by the uplifted hand; and lastly those who affirm.

A motion is then made by a member, "that the members present do now, in conformity with the ninth section of the second article of the Constitution, proceed to the election of a Speaker." This motion being stated by the Clerk, and adopted by the House, nominations are made; after which the Clerk proceeds to call over the names of the members, each member announcing distinctly when his name is called, the person for whom he votes. When the call of the roll is gone through with, the Clerks add up the number of votes given for each person voted for, and the result is announced to the House by the Clerk. If any one candidate receives a majority of all the votes cast, he is declared elected Speaker.

The Chief Clerk and other officers of the House are then elected, after which the House is ready to consider any business which may be presented.

OF THE GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

There are certain duties pertaining to the offices of President and Speaker which are not necessary to be specified by rule, being so obviously proper and right as to be indisputable.

1. He calls the Assembly to order at the time fixed for the meeting, and ascertains the presence of a quorum.

2. He causes the journal of the preceding session to be read and passed upon by the Assembly.

3. He announces the business and lays it before the Assembly, in the order in which it is to be acted upon.

4. He receives any propositions made by members and puts them to the Assembly and declares the determination of the body.

5. He decides all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Assembly.

6. He preserves order and decorum in debate and at all other times.

7. He is the representative of the body itself, in its powers, its proceedings and its dignity.

8. Under the rules he has the general direction of the hall.

9. He receives and announces to the Assembly all messages from other branches of the government, and also any other appropriate communications.

10. He gives notice and signs in the presence of the body all acts, orders, addresses and joint resolutions.

11. When a legislative body is engaged in its judicial functions, it is the duty of the presiding officer to conduct the proceedings, to put questions to parties and witnesses, and to pronounce the sentence or judgment.

12. When the Assembly is engaged in any of its high administrative functions, or in matters of state or ceremony, as, for example, when a member or other person is to be reprimanded or thanked, the presiding officer is the mouthpiece and organ of the body.

13. The President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House are always members, and may present petitions, memorials and remonstrances sent to them. They possess the right to vote as other members, on all questions before the body, and may leave the chair and address the body on any question. The Lieutenant-Governor, as President of the Senate, only votes when there is a tie.

BILLS IN PLACE.

All bills read in place in the Senate and House of Representatives must be presented in triplicate, before presenting same it is the duty of the member to fold them up in a neat form (about three and one-half inches by eight and one-half inches) and indorse on the back of each the title of the act and following this he signs his name with county and date of presentation. The extra copies are marked "duplicate" at the top.

Senate (or H. R.)

Jan. 4, 1921.

In the Senate when the order of business of reading bills in place is reached the Senator who desires to present a bill, arises, and, addressing the Chair, says: "Mr. President, I read in my place, and present to the Chair, a bill, entitled "(here he states the title of the bill.)" The President says: "The Senator fromCounty, Mr. reads in his place and presents to the Chair a bill, entitled (here he reads the title); which is referred to the Committee on"

To prevent confusion in the House of Representatives, a Member who desires to introduce a bill, first endorses the same and then deposits it, together with the duplicates properly endorsed, in a box which is in the custody of the Chief Clerk. At the close of each day the Chief Clerk presents all the bills that have been left in his custody during the day to the Speaker for reference by him to appropriate committees. The next succeeding day after the Journal has been approved the bills are reported to the House by the Speaker, with the appropriate committee references written thereon.

All bills and joint resolutions presented in either the Senate or House of Representatives must be presented in triplicate:—one copy for the use of the committee, one for the use of the press, and one for the use of the printer.

OF RESOLUTIONS.

In general, the parliamentary meaning of "resolution" is the expression of the will of the House in regard to any subject before it, public or private; as, for example, that the use of the hall be granted for a particular purpose; that the House will adjourn at a particular time; that certain companies be required to furnish statements, et cetera. If information is desired from any of the departments, or from the Executive, the resolution assumes the form of a request, as for example: "Resolved, That the Auditor-General be requested to furnish the House or Senate with a statement," et cetera.

This, however, is indeed but an expression of will; the House, by the resolution, doing nothing more than declaring it to be their will that the Auditor-General be requested to furnish the statement.

When a member is desirous of bringing before the House any proposition for its determination, he writes it out in the form of a resolution, in a plain legible hand, and as soon as the Speaker announces that "original resolutions are now in order," he rises in his place and says: "Mr. Speaker (or Mr. President), I offer the following resolution." The Speaker then says: "The gentleman from offers the following resolution: the resolution will be read." As soon as the Clerk has read it, the Speaker says: "What order will the House take upon the resolution?" Generally the response is, "Second Reading." The Speaker then puts the question, "Will the House or Senate proceed to the second reading and consideration of the resolution?" If this is decided in the affirmative, the Clerk is directed to read the resolution again, when it is regularly before the House for its action. But no amendment can be offered to the resolution, or any motion made in regard to it, until it is in possession of the Senate or House, which is when the body has agreed to proceed to its second reading. Before that time it is always in the power of the mover to withdraw it. If the House refuses to proceed to the second reading, the resolution is then considered as rejected for that time, although the mover is not thereby precluded from moving on the next day, that the House do now proceed to its second reading, or on another day again offering the resolution.

As soon as the Senate or House has agreed to the second reading of the resolution, and it has been read by the Clerk, if it be a resolution that can be considered without reference to a committee, it is then subject to amendment, and the amendment while under consideration, is also subject to amendment; but there can be no amendment of an amendment to an amendment, because this would be an amendment in the third degree, and would tend rather to embarrass than facilitate business. If the resolution contain two or more distinct propositions, it may be divided, and a vote had on each division separately. A resolution may be amended by striking out all after the word "Resolved," and inserting different matter, if upon the same subject as the original related to.

In the Senate, resolutions on the following subjects, after being twice read, must be referred to an appropriate committee without debate (unless by unanimous consent the Senate shall otherwise direct), and, if favorably reported by the committee, shall lie over for one day for consideration, after which they may be called up under their appropriate order of business, viz: All Senate and House concurrent resolutions (excepting resolutions in reference to adjournments and those recalling bills from the Governor, which are regarded as privileged); resolutions containing calls for information from the heads of departments, or to alter the rules; and resolutions giving rise to debate. (except such as relate to the disposition of matters immediately before the Senate, to the business of the day on which offered, and to adjournment or taking a recess.)

In the House, after being twice read, all resolutions recalling bills from the Governor; recalling bills from one House to the other; requesting information from heads of departments; those relating to adjournment; discharging committees from further consideration of bills, and placing negative bills upon the calendar; also those emanating from the Committee on Rules are given immediate consideration. All others, after being twice read, are printed and lie over for one day, after which they may be called up under their appropriate order of business.

Joint resolutions, being in the nature of bills, cannot be submitted to the House under the head of original resolutions. They are deposited with the Chief Clerk, the same as bills, who presents them to the Speaker for reference to Committees.

Concurrent resolutions are those on which the action of both Senate and House are required, and are treated in each House the same as original resolutions.

OF LETTERS, PETITIONS, ET CETERA.

If a letter, petition, memorial or remonstrance be sent to a member to be by him presented to the House or Senate, his first duty is to fold it up in a neat form (about three and one-half inches by eight and one-half inches) and indorse on the back of it, in brief, the subject on which it treats, and immediately above this statement he signs his name and county, and indorses the date. For example, a member has a petition for the passage of a bill, et cetera, he indorses it in this way: "The petition of the inhabitants of praying," et cetera.

All petitions, letters, memorials or remonstrances after being properly indorsed are filed by the member with the chief clerk, who presents them to the presiding officer, by whom they are referred to appropriate committees.

ACTION ON BILLS BY STANDING COMMITTEES.

When a bill has been referred to a standing committee, for its consideration, by means of bills read in place by a member, the committee, as soon as they have completed the examination, make report of the result of their deliberations to the House, and this report varies, according to the circumstances of the case.

Suppose, for example, a member should read in his place a bill, and this bill has been, in the usual course of business, referred to the appropriate committee. Should the committee agree to report the bill affirmatively they would give it in charge of one of their number, to be reported, the secretary first indorsing the name of the member on the back, the name of the committee, and words "as committed." In case the committee made amendments, the secretary would then indorse on the bill the words "with amendments." If a committee recommended that a bill be negative, the secretary indorses the words "neg. rec." on the back. If the bill committed to a House committee for examination was a Senate bill, and no amendments were made, the secretary would indorse on it the words "as committed," and if amendments were made, the indorsement would be the same as in the case of a House bill. Similar action should be taken in the Senate committees on House bills.

AMENDING BILLS IN COMMITTEE.

Whenever a committee, to whom has been referred a bill for examination, make amendments to it, care should be taken to indicate them in such a way as to be readily comprehended by the clerks, and in the House, in case of a Senate bill, to each amendment should be annexed, on the margin of the bill, the words "H. C. Andt.," which means House committee amendment. In the Senate, the amendments to House bills should be "Sen. Andt." When these marks are used, it can always be ascertained whether the amendment was first made by the committee of the House, which sometimes becomes important. But no part of any bill should be mutilated. A line should be drawn around such words or parts of words intended to be stricken out. No amendments made in pencil can be entertained. In the House red ink is used in indicating amendments made to Senate bills.

ACTION ON BILLS IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

When a bill has been reported by a committee and printed, it is placed on the calendar of bills on first reading, is read the first time at length, and under the rule cannot be amended but is simply agreed to, and laid aside for second reading. When the order is reached of bills on second reading in the House, the Speaker announces the number and title, and the bill is committed to the committee of the whole (unless the committee of the whole should be dispensed with.) The Speaker then calls a member to the chair. The chairman directs the clerk to read the first section, after which he puts the question upon the section, and so on through the whole bill. As each section comes up it is subject to debate and amendment, but the yeas and nays cannot be called, nor can any question of privilege be raised in committee of the whole. When the last section has been acted on the chairman announces the fact, and then says, "The bill has been gone through with," and the committee rise and the chairman reports the bill back to the House, stating whether with amendments, as committed, or negative, as the case may be. After being reported, the Speaker says, "Will the House agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?" If agreed to, and the bill having already been read through in committee of the whole, the Speaker says, "The bill is before the House on second reading." The bill is then open for debate or motion to amend in any part. In the Senate, the chairman, if reporting the bill from the Committee of the Whole with amendments, moves that they be inserted, and if agreed to, the amendments are entered in the Journal, and the same course is followed as in the House. But in neither House can the title be acted on by any committee. Should the Committee of the Whole be dispensed with, then the bill must be read through by sections on second reading, and as each section is read, the question is stated to the House by the Speaker, and the section is subject to debate or amendment. When the last section has been agreed to, the next question is upon the title, that being agreed to, the next step is the transcribing of the bill, and the Speaker says: "This bill has now been read a second time, considered and agreed to; the question will be on transcribing the bill for a third reading. Shall the bill be transcribed?" This is usually agreed to, but should an opposition to it be manifested, the Speaker must take the sense of the House regularly upon it, for the form stated has only been adopted to save time on a question which, in most cases, is never opposed. The bill being thus ordered to be transcribed, lies over and comes up on the calendar of bills on third reading. When a bill is reached on third reading, after the bill has been read through, the Speaker says: "This bill has now been read a third time; the question is on agreeing to the bill the third time." If agreed to, the next question is on its final passage, when the Speaker says: "This bill has been read three times at length on three separate days, considered and agreed to, the question is now on its final passage. Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays will be taken, on the final passage of the bill." If the bill passes, an order follows, of course, which should always be stated by the Speaker, in the case of House bills: "The clerk will present the same to the Senate for concurrence." In case of Senate bills without amendment, "The clerk will return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment." In case of Senate bills with amendments, "The Clerk will return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested. If the bill considered should be a Senate bill, and not a House bill, the same proceedings are had, and the form varies in only two particulars: The first is after the title is agreed to on the second reading, instead of the Speaker saying, as in case of House bills, "Shall the bill be transcribed for a third reading?" he says, "Shall the bill be prepared for a third reading?" because the bill was transcribed before it came from the Senate, each House transcribing its own bills; and second, when the bill comes up on third reading, instead of saying, "This bill has now been read a third time," he says: "This bill originated in the Senate; it has been read three times at length and agreed to, the question is on its final passage," and then orders the yeas and nays to be called on the final passage of the bill. In the Senate, the same form is followed with House bills.

When a bill is on third reading, suppose it is desirable still further to amend it, the member desirous of doing so arises in his place, and says: "Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be committed to the Committee of the Whole House, for the purpose of amending the same as follows, viz: (here he states the amendment.) If this motion is decided in the affirmative, the House then resolves itself into Committee of the Whole, and the amendment is inserted, and the chairman, as in other cases, leaves the chair, goes to his seat, and says: "Mr. Speaker, the Committee of the Whole, to which was committed, for special amendment, bill No. entitled 'An act', has instructed its chairman to report the same, amended in accordance with the instructions of the House," and if no further motions of a like character should be made, the question of agreeing to the bill on third reading is then taken, and the result announced. But if the member desires that the whole bill should be open in committee for amendment, he moves, "that the bill be committed to the Committee of the Whole for general amendment;" and if this motion should be adopted, and the bill be so committed, and amendments are made, the chairman merely reports the bill "with amendments;" the Speaker then puts the question, "Will the House agree to the report of the committee?" After decision, the question is again put on agreeing to the bill the third time.

Very similar action is had in the Senate, except when general amendments have been made in Committee of the Whole, and the report is agreed to, the question is put, "Will the Senate agree to the bill as amended?"

In case a bill has been amended upon its second or third reading it must be printed, with the amendments, before the vote is taken on its final passage.

FORMS OF MESSAGES FROM ONE HOUSE TO THE OTHER.

When the Clerk has but one bill to take from the House to the Senate for concurrence the form is—

"The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence, bill No. 1, entitled 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"

If there be two or more bills, the form is—

"The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence, bills numbered and entitled as follows:—

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"
 "No. 2. 'An act relative to insurance companies.'"

If there be in connection with bills for concurrence, Senate bills, without amendment, the form is—

"The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence, bills numbered and entitled as follows:—

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"
 "No. 2. 'An act relative to insurance companies.'"

He also returned bills from the Senate, numbered and entitled as follows:

- "No. 20. 'An act relative to brokers.'"
 "No. 21. 'An act relative to banks.'"

"With information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment."

If the Senate bills have amendments, the form is—

"The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence, bills numbered and entitled as follows:—

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"
 "No. 2. 'An act relative to insurance companies.'"

He also returned bills from the Senate, numbered and entitled as follows:

- "No. 20. 'An act relative to brokers.'"
 "No. 21. 'An act relative to banks.'"

"With information that the House of Representatives has passed the same with an amendment (or amendments), in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested."

But suppose the Senate had passed a bill from the House, No. 1, for example, with amendments, and the House has concurred in them, the following would be added to the above message:

"He also informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to the bill from the House of Representatives, entitled

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"

Should the House non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate to the bill, then the information is the same, except that the word non-concurred is used instead of concurred.

If the House, however, concurs in the Senate amendments with an amendment, the information in the message is:

"He also informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to the bill from the House of Representatives, entitled

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"

"With an amendment (or amendments) in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested."

But suppose the House should concur in one amendment made by the Senate to the bill and non-concur in the other, the information to be given would be:

"He also informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has non-concurred in the first amendment made by the Senate to the bill from the House of Representatives, entitled

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers,' and has concurred in the second."

And if the House should concur with an amendment, then is added: "And has concurred in the second, with an amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested."

Suppose, again, that the House of Representatives concur in the amendments made by the Senate to amendments made by the House of Representatives to said bill, the information would be:

"He also informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in the amendment made by the Senate to the amendments made by the House of Representatives to bill from the House of Representatives, entitled

- "No. 1. 'An act for the protection of laborers.'"

And if the House should non-concur, then the message varies accordingly.

If, in all these cases, the House or Senate should recede, insist or adhere to any amendments made by them, respectively, to a bill, then the form used is precisely the same as those already given, except the words recede, insist or adhere, are used, as the case may be.

If the House insists, then follows the appointment of a committee of conference, and the information to be given is:

"He informed the Senate that the House of Representatives insists upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the Senate, to the bill from the House of Representatives, No. 1, entitled (here state the title) and has appointed Messrs. A. B., C. D., and E. F., a committee of conference, to confer with a similar committee of the Senate: If the Senate should appoint such committee, on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses on said bill."

If the Senate should have already appointed a committee, then the words used, instead of "If the Senate should appoint a committee," are "already appointed by the Senate," thus changing the form to suit the circumstances.

If the House should pass a resolution, which requires the concurrence of the Senate, the form of the message is:

"The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives:—

(Here follows the resolution, with the date of its passage.)

The same form is used by the Clerk of the Senate, using the word "Senate," instead of "House of Representatives," et cetera.

CERTIFICATES ATTACHED TO BILLS PASSED OVER VETO, AND TO BILLS HELD TEN DAYS.

The following forms are used when bills become laws, in any of the modes prescribed by the Constitution, other than by the approval of the Executive.

When a bill has not been returned by the Executive within ten days after it has been presented to him for his approval, the following certificate is attached, which the clerk of the Senate and House of Representatives both sign, the clerk of the body in which the bill originated signing first, and they then send the bill to the Secretary's office:

We do certify that the bill (here insert title), was presented to the Governor on the day of one thousand nine hundred and, and was not returned within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it had been presented to him; wherefore it has, agreeably to the Constitution of this Commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.
Clerk of the House of Representatives.
Clerk of the Senate.

Harrisburg (date).

When a bill has been disapproved by the Executive, and both Houses have passed it by the constitutional majority of two-thirds, there must be two certificates, one for each House, and signed by the Speaker and Clerks, as follows:

We do certify that the bill, entitled (here insert title), which has been disapproved by the Governor, and returned, with his objections, to the House of Representatives (or Senate), in which it originated, was passed by two-thirds of the House of Representatives, on the day of one thousand nine hundred and, and the foregoing is the act so passed by the House.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Harrisburg (date).

We do certify that the bill (here insert title), which has been disapproved by the Governor, and returned with his objections, to the House of Representatives (or Senate), in which it originated, was passed by two-thirds of the Senate, on the day of one thousand nine hundred and, and the foregoing is the act so passed by the Senate.

President of the Senate.
Clerk of the Senate.

Harrisburg (date).

The Speaker and Clerk of the House in which the bill originated sign the first certificate, and then the President and the Clerk of the other House the second.

OATH OF PUBLIC OFFICERS.

The oath required by the Constitution to be administered to Senators and Representatives, Judicial, State and county officers, is, as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity, that I have not paid or contributed, or promise to pay or contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, to procure my nomination or election (or appointment), except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law; that I have not knowingly violated any election law of this Commonwealth, or procured it to be done by others in my behalf; that I will not knowingly receive, directly or indirectly, any money or valuable thing for the performance or non-performance of any act or duty pertaining to my office other than the compensation allowed by law."

The foregoing oath shall be administered by some person authorized to administer oaths, and in case of State officers and judges of the Supreme Court, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and in the case of the other judicial and county officers, in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the same is taken. The oath to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives shall be administered by one of the judges of the Supreme Court, or of a court of common pleas, learned in the law, in the Hall of the House to which the members shall be elected.

COUNTING THE VOTE FOR GOVERNOR, LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, AUDITOR-GENERAL, STATE TREASURER AND SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS.

When the Legislature meets after an election for either of the above named officers, the two Houses, either by a resolution direct or through a committee appointed for the purpose, fix the time and place for opening and publishing the returns of the election. The time is usually, in case of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, twelve o'clock M., on the Thursday preceding the day of their inauguration, and the place, the House of Representatives, in the presence of the two Houses. Each House appoints a teller, and notifies the other in advance of the meeting.

A committee from the House of Representatives waits on the Senate a few minutes before the meeting, and escorts the President and members of the Senate to the place of meeting, when the President of the Senate, or in his absence, the President pro tempore, takes the chair of the Speaker of the House, and, after order is restored, says: "This being the day and hour agreed upon for opening and publishing the returns of the election for Governor (held on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November last), the clerk of the Senate will read over the returns from the several counties and the tellers take down the number of votes given for each person voted for as Governor." The Clerk then proceeds to read aloud the returns, and the tellers to note down the number of votes, and so on until all the returns from the several counties are read over. A computation is then made. When this is done the result is announced by the President of the Senate, and the certificate of election signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and attested by the tellers, as follows:

FORM OF CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION OF GOVERNOR AND OTHER STATE OFFICERS.

"We, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do certify that the President of the Senate, did on the day of A. D. one thousand nine hundred and, in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the State Capitol, open the returns of the election for Governor of this Commonwealth, and publish the same in the presence of both Houses of the Legislature, conformably to the provisions of the Constitution and laws, of said Commonwealth, and upon counting the votes by a teller appointed on the part of each House it appeared that had the highest number of votes; whereupon the said was declared to have been duly elected Governor of the Commonwealth.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seals the day and year above written."

..... (Seal.)
..... (Seal.)

DISPOSITION OF CERTIFICATE.

This certificate is to be deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and a duplicate, signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, and attested by the tellers, transmitted to the Governor-elect.

ACTION AFTER RETURNS ARE ANNOUNCED AND CERTIFICATES SIGNED.

The committee of introduction then conduct the President and members of the Senate to their Chamber and retire. The tellers make out a report of the number of votes given for each person voted for, including a copy of the certificate, and this report is made to the Senate and House respectively, and entered on the Journals. The same form of proceeding is followed in counting the vote for Lieutenant-Governor, State Treasurer, Auditor-General and Secretary of Internal Affairs.

INAUGURATION OF GOVERNOR AND LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

The oath of office is administered to the Governor in the presence of the Legislature and State officers, by some person authorized to administer oaths (usually the chief justice of the Supreme Court), on the third Tuesday of January following his election.

The Lieutenant-Governor takes the oath of office on the same day in the presence of the Senate.

LEGISLATION PROHIBITED BY THE CONSTITUTION.

No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended, on its passage through either House, as to change its original purpose.

No bill shall be considered unless referred to a committee, returned therefrom, and printed for the use of the members.

No bill, except general appropriation bills, shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different days, in each House; all amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the final vote is taken on the bill, and no bill shall become a law, unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the persons voting for and against the same be entered on the Journal, and a majority of the members elected to each House be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

No amendment to bills by one House shall be concurred in by the other, except by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the Journal thereof; and reports of committees of conference shall be adopted in either House only by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting recorded upon the Journals.

No law shall be revived, amended, or the provisions thereof extended or conferred, by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revived, amended, extended or conferred shall be re-enacted and published at length.

The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law—

Authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens:

Regulating the affairs of counties, cities, townships, wards, boroughs or school districts:

Changing the names of persons or places:

Changing the venue of civil or criminal cases:

Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys: Relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges, crossing streams which form boundaries between this and any other State:

Vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys:

Relating to cemeteries, grave yards or public grounds not of the State:

Authorizing the adoption or legitimation of children:

Locating or changing county seats, erecting new counties, or changing county lines:

Incorporating cities, towns or villages, or changing their charters:

For the opening and conducting of elections, or fixing or changing the place of voting:

Granting of divorces:

Erecting new townships or boroughs, changing township lines, borough limits, or school districts:

Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts:

Changing the law of descent or succession:

Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, aldermen, justices of the peace, sheriffs, commissioners, arbitrators, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate:

Regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of aldermen, justices of the peace, magistrates or constables:

Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses, and the raising of money for such purposes:

Fixing the rate of interest:

Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment:

Remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury:

Exempting property from taxation:

Regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing:

Creating corporations, or amending, renewing or extending the charters thereof:

Granting to any corporation, association or individual any special or exclusive privilege or immunity, or to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down a railroad track:

Nor shall the General Assembly indirectly enact such special or local law by the partial repeal of a general law; but laws repealing local or special acts may be passed:

Nor shall any law be passed granting powers or privileges in any case where the granting of such powers and privileges shall have been provided for by general law, nor where the courts have jurisdiction to grant the same or give the relief asked for.

No local or special bill shall be passed unless notice of the intention to apply therefor shall have been published in the locality where the matter or the thing to be affected may be situated, which notice shall be at least thirty days prior to the introduction into the General Assembly of such bill and in the manner to be provided by law; the evidence of such notice having been published, shall be exhibited in the General Assembly before such act shall be passed.

No bill shall be passed giving any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, employee, agent or contractor, after services shall have been rendered or contract made, nor providing for the payment of any claim against the Commonwealth without previous authority of law.

No law shall extend the term of any public officer, or increase or diminish his salary or emoluments, after his election or appointment.

The general appropriation bill shall embrace nothing but appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the Commonwealth, interest on the public debt, and for public schools; all other appropriations shall be made by separate bills, each embracing but one subject.

No money shall be paid out of the treasury, except upon appropriations made by law, and on warrant drawn by the proper officer in pursuance thereof.

No appropriation shall be made to any charitable or educational institution not under the absolute control of the Commonwealth, other than normal schools established by law for the professional training of teachers for the public schools of the State, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House.

No appropriations, except for pensions or gratuities for military services, shall be made for charitable, educational or benevolent purposes, to any person or community, nor to any denominational or sectarian institution, corporation or association.

The General Assembly may make appropriations of money to institutions wherein the widows of soldiers are supported or assisted, or the orphans of soldiers are maintained and educated; but such appropriation shall be applied exclusively to the support of such widows and orphans.

The General Assembly shall not delegate to any special commission, private corporation or association, any power to make, supervise or interfere with any municipal improvement, money, property or effects, whether held in trust or otherwise, or to levy taxes or perform any municipal function whatever.

No act of General Assembly shall limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or for injuries to persons or property; and, in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for whose benefit such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits may be brought against corporations for injuries to persons or property, or for other causes, different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided.

No act of General Assembly shall authorize the investment of trust funds by executors, administrators, guardians, or other trustees, in the bonds or stock of any private corporation, and such acts now existing are avoided, saving investments heretofore made.

The power to change the venue in civil and criminal cases shall be vested in the courts, to be exercised in such manner as shall be provided by law.

No obligation or liability of any railroad or other corporation, held or owned by the Commonwealth, shall ever be exchanged, transferred, remitted, postponed, or in any way diminished, by the General Assembly, nor shall such liability or obligation be released, except by payment thereof into the State Treasury.

When the General Assembly shall be convened in special session, there shall be no legislation upon subjects other than those designated in the proclamation of the Governor calling such session.

No State office shall be continued or created for the inspection or measuring of any merchandise, manufacture or commodity, but any county or municipality may appoint such officers when authorized by law.

No law changing the location of the Capitol of this State shall be valid until the same shall have been submitted to the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, at a general election, and ratified and approved by them.

ACT REGULATING THE PUBLICATION OF APPLICATIONS FOR LOCAL OR SPECIAL LEGISLATION.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That no local or special bill, either to repeal or enact a law, shall be passed by the Legislature, unless notice of the intention to apply therefor shall be published in the locality where the matter or thing to be affected may be situated, which notice shall state specifically the title and objects of the bill, and shall be published by not less than four insertions in at least two daily or weekly newspapers, one of which may be in a language, other than English, once a week for four consecutive weeks, printed in the county, or in each of the several counties, where such matter or thing to be affected may be situated; the first insertion to be at least thirty days prior to and within three months immediately preceding the introduction of such bill into the General Assembly, and be signed by at least one of the parties applying therefor: Provided, That the publication, in one newspaper shall be deemed sufficient where but one is published in the county or counties aforesaid.

Section 2. The evidence of the publication aforesaid shall be by attaching to a bill a copy or copies, as the case may be, of said notice, verified by the affidavit of the owner, publisher, editor or foreman of each of the several newspapers in which said notice is by this act required to be published, of due compliance with the preceding section.

Section 3. That when such local or special bill shall affect any matter or thing situated in any city or borough, said publication shall be in two of the newspapers published in said city or borough, if so many there be; and if there be but one, a publication in that one shall be deemed sufficient; if there be no newspaper published in said city or borough, then by publication in the newspaper or newspapers of the county in which said city or borough is located, as provided in the first section of this act. (Act of February 12, 1874, P. L. 43.)
